1 February 2015

fourth sunday in ordinary time (OF year B)
septuagesima sunday (EF)

I don't know about you, but I can find Lent awfully tough at times. Every year I make something akin to a New Year's Resolution, to abstain from some good thing for 40 days or to take on some extra penance. And then I invariably talk about it with a bunch of other people doing similar things, and we usually end up telling stories of our failures, because, well, if we told the stories of our successes, how could we gain the merit from a practice which is supposed to develop in us, the virtue of humility?

But, what if, in our parish family, we were not just isolated individuals each doing his/her own thing, and feeling awfully lonely and weak about it? What if, as a parish family, we all celebrate Lent together this year and support each other in our Lenten journey towards Easter?

Soon, you will get a chance to see a booklet I have prepared called The Shape of Lent at POP 2015. In it, I propose that as a parish family we all do certain Lenten practices and extra Bible readings together, instead of each one doing something different. Of course, you are all free to do whatever you want, but I warmly encourage all of you to enter into this Lent as a corporate expression of our unity in Christ.

So how does this work? Each week of Lent we will have a different focus. Each week will have a different set of Scripture readings to meditate on and focusing on a different theme. Each week will also have its own penance. So, instead of giving up coffee for 40 days, we will all together give up coffee or alcohol during the Fourth Week of Lent as we read Scripture passages from the prophets related to our continuing conversion in Christ. Instead of giving up Facebook or the movies for all of Lent, we will give up entertainment and technology during the Fifth Week of Lent, and read about the life and teachings of Christ.

We are always better together. And I think that, if as many people as possible in our parish, band together on the same Lenten journey, as well as coming to the usual Lenten devotional services and daily Mass and the like, we can celebrate a truly beautiful Lent. It makes us part of something beyond ourselves. Think about the conversations it can spark with friends and family, especially as you all go through it together. It is even something you can share with non-Catholic friends!

I am looking forward to sharing Lent with you all this year, and not just off in my own corner trying to do it alone. We can all this year, support each other in a common effort and come closer to Jesus, as one parish family.

Fr Smith

in your kindness, you are asked to pray for the repose of the soul of Bud Tallarico. May God grant him eternal rest and may the Lord's consolation be with his family.

holy hour for vocations: We will have a Holy Hour for Vocations this Friday at 7p. Join us to pray for Vocations to the priesthood and for the sanctification of the clergy.

prayer for vocations

Heavenly Father, Your divine Son taught us to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His vineyard. We earnestly beg You to bless our Diocese and our world with many priests and religious men and women who will love You fervently, and gladly and courageously spend their lives in service to Your Son's Church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. We pray that their lives may be always centered on our Eucharistic Lord; that they be always faithful to the Holy Father; and that they may be devoted sons and daughters of Mary, our Mother, in making You known and loved; and that all may attain Heaven. Bless our families and our children and choose from our homes those whom You desire for this holy work. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

first sunday holy hour: Please join the Saint Rafka Maronite community as they gather for a holy hour this Sunday at 3p. During the holy hour, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed, the Chaplet of Mercy is prayed, confessions are heard and there is Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at the conclusion.

Q. If I have committed a mortal sin, and can't get to confession, can't I just say an Act of Contrition and then go to Communion anyway?

A. The clear teaching of the Catholic Church was defined at the Council of Trent that this is not possible, except where there is an emergency in which there is no possible way to go to confession, and one possesses perfect contrition for one's sins:

canon 11: If anyone says that faith alone is sufficient preparation for receiving the sacrament of the most Holy Eucharist, let him be anathema. And, lest so great a sacrament be received unworthily and hence unto death and condemnation, this Holy Council determines and decrees that those whose conscience is burdened with mortal sin, no matter how contrite they may think they are, first must necessarily make a sacramental confession if a confessor is available. If anyone presumes to teach or preach or obstinately maintain or defend in public disputation the opposite of this, he shall by the very fact be excommunicated.

sidewalk counseling training will be offered by the Diocesan Family Life Office for everyone wishing to learn more on how to help women in crisis pregnancy situations. The class will be held in the Family Life Center at Our Lady of the Rosary Catholic Church, 3710 Augusta Rd., Saturday, 7 February, 10a-2p. Please call Ingrid Ireland 864.329.0044 by 2 February to reserve your place in the class.

baptism class: Please note date & time change. Parents desiring baptism for their children must attend a Baptism Class. The next class will be held on Tuesday, 10 February at 6p in Croghan Hall Conference Room. Contact Gus Suarez to register at 864.234.7415.
