1 March 2015

second sunday of lent (OF year B & EF)

Ralph Waldo Emerson once said: "Sow a thought and you reap an action; sow an act and you reap a habit; sow a habit and you reap a character; sow a character and you reap a destiny." This pithy quote by Mr. Emerson is actually a very concise way of encapsulating the Christian idea of Virtue Ethics. Virtue Ethics is a theological and philosophical approach to answering the complex moral questions of our day by asking: 'How can my daily decisions and actions help to build greater virtue in my life and in my relationships with others?' You may be thinking to yourself, 'this all very nice and all, but what does any of this have to do with Lent?'

As Catholics, and especially during Lent, we can tend to get caught up in the specifics of rules and issues of legal requirement. A young man told me the other day, after he found out that Lenten regulations for fasting and abstinence are loosed on Sundays that this Sunday he is going to eat so much chocolate until he is sick. I can completely resonate with line of thinking and I have even thought the exact same thing.

However, if we get caught in the mode of only focusing on the negative aspects of our Lenten disciplines than we are doomed to miss the greater point of Lent and what it is preparing us for. Lent is a spiritual and liturgical season in the Church where the wisdom of our faith is attempting to train us in belief and action to: sow a thought, reap an action; sow an act, reap a habit; sow a habit, reap a character; sow a character, reap a destiny. Our Lenten disciplines are not merely intended to make us suffer. The forty days are intended to mold our hearts, minds, and wills to such a complete love of God and sacrificial love of neighbor.

The only difference between Ralph Waldo Emerson's secular humanist approach and our explicitly Christian approach is that we are not simply preparing for some ambiguous destiny with the universe, we are preparing for the eternal bliss of sharing in the beatific vision of the Lord with all the Angels and Saints. Our destiny is the eternal reality of a very specific love and a very personal relationship with God in Jesus Christ and his body; the Church. Lent provides us with us a uniquely dedicated time for prayer and fasting to intentionally mold our minds, bodies, and spirits into the cruciform shape of Jesus' own life.

I encourage you to think about your Lenten disciplines, either as fasts that you abstain from or spiritual practices that you choose to take on, as daily decisions and actions that are helping you to build greater virtue in your life. The benefit in developing these virtues and spiritual habits is that they train us to appreciate more fully our love of God, obedience to Him, and sacrificial love for others over satisfying our own wants. The glory of the cross and the invitation that we receive in Lent, is that we are asked to participate in the divine love of God until we come to share in the eternal Easter celebration.

Evan Simington, Pastoral Associate

regulations for fast and abstinence:

Fasting is to be observed by all 18 years of age and older, who have not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and juices, are allowed.

Abstinence is observed by all 14 years of age and older. On days of abstinence no meat is allowed. Note that when health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. When in doubt concerning fast and abstinence, the parish priest should be consulted.

Good Friday, (3 April), is a day of fast & abstinence. All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence. Fasting, almsgiving, and prayer are the three traditional disciplines of Lent. The faithful and catechumens should undertake these practices seriously in a spirit of penance and of preparation for baptism or renewal of baptismal vows at Easter.

bishop's annual appeal:

what is it? The BAA is a primary source of funding to help sustain and expand ministries in the 95 parishes, 21 missions, 33 Catholic Schools, and agencies throughout the diocese. Each parish and mission is asked to participate in this worthy appeal.

How are parish BAA targets determined?

It is an objective formula based on a parish's annual assessable income. Each parish is assigned a percentage, or fair share, of the overall $3,000,000 goal as their BAA parish target. This percentage is the same percentage that their parish assessment represents compared to the overall diocesan assessment. For example, if a parish's annual diocesan assessment represents 1% of the overall diocesan assessment amount, then their BAA target will represent 1% of the $3,000,000 overall goal.

Prince of Peace BAA goal for 2015 is $ 61,462.

The mission of Prince of Peace is to share the fullness of the Gospel to all we encounter in our lives by equipping disciples to create and strengthen a personal relationship with Christ. By the grace of God, we are called to strive for personal holiness, participate fully in the vibrant life of the Church's Tradition and transform the world.
