22 March 2015

fifth sunday of lent (OF year B & EF)

passion sunday (EF)

The Adoration Guild of St. Thomas Aquinas invites you to share a weekly hour with Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Please see below thoughts of our Guild Coordinators on the beauty and power of Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration.

My hour of adoration is the best antidote to a stressful day. The Lord always surprises me during my hour of adoration. For example, during the Christmas season, the chapel was decorated in anticipation of the birth of Christ. The Christmas triptych was surrounded by white poinsettias. The lights were dim and the candles were flickering. The chapel was silent. It was a "Silent Night". As I enjoyed the silence and the presence of the Lord in the Eucharist, I realized that adoration is a preparation for heaven. For all eternity, we will be in the presence of the Lord praising and adoring Him or just sitting at his feet in His quiet presence. WOW!

Pam Harrison (6a-Noon Coordinator)

Father Patrick Peyton's famous quote, "the family that prays together, stays together," is perhaps even timelier for our families today. How beautiful and beneficial for a family to share their own weekly hour adoring our Lord in the Eucharist. Think of the spiritual bonding of a married couple spending one hour every week before the Blessed Sacrament adoring their Lord with whom and before whom they said their nuptial vows. Could there be a better place for a couple to discern and/or prepare for an upcoming holy and sacrificial marriage? Children will thrive in their Catholic faith as they see their parents' priority in making time for the family hour. Our young people will then experience the blessings of personally getting to know Jesus as Lord and dearest friend of their heart. Linda Head (Noon-6p Coordinator)

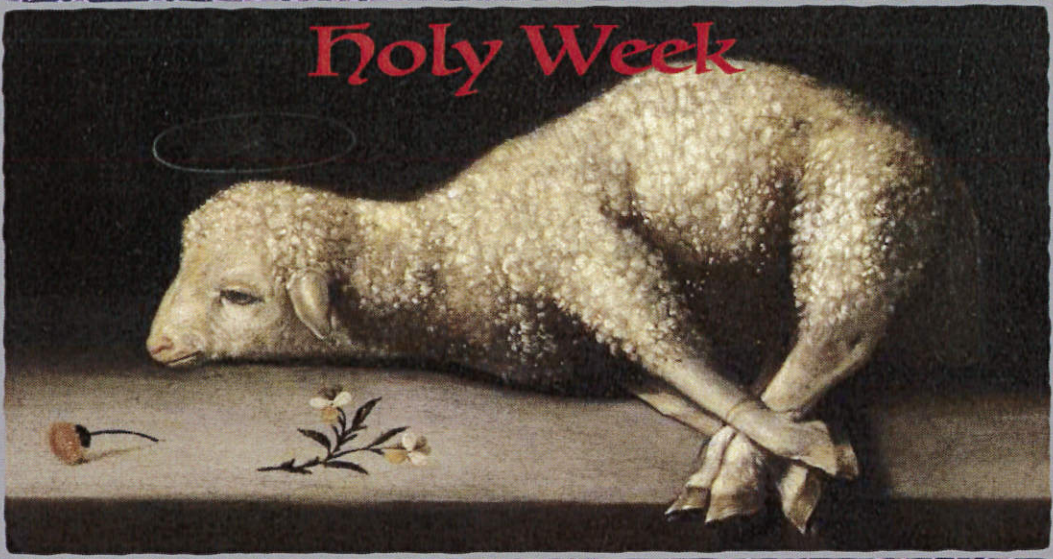

"And He went up on the mountain and called to Him those whom He desired; and they came to Him." (Mark 3:13) God desires us to "BE" with him, to deepen our relationship with Him! How wonderful! Come and sit before the King of Kings, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament! Listen and hear Him speak to you in the silence of the Chapel, that you may recognize His voice in the noise of the world. Give Him your disappointments, your frustrations, your JOYS. Or just "BE" for true love needs no words." Come! Share an hour with The Lord. Receive so much more in return.

Lisa Buss (6p-Midnight Coordinator)

"Very early in the morning, while it was dark, He got up, went out, and made His way to a quiet place. And He was praying there."...Mark 1:35. It was always common knowledge among the disciples that Jesus would pray in the early morning hours. Every time Jesus faced an important decision, He prayed: Matthew 4:3-11 when He was tempted according to the world instead of the Word; Luke 6:12-16 when He was choosing His disciples; John 11:42-43 when His prayer preceded His raising of Lazarus; Luke 22:41-42 when Jesus was facing His crucifixion in the Garden; and again in Luke 23:46, His last earthly words were a prayer. If the Son of God required an entire night of prayer to determine God's Will, how long might it take us? Choose a "midnight" hour in our adoration chapel. Then you, too, will know the power of prayer the way that Jesus knew!

Tom O'Donnell (Midnight-6a Coordinator)

from the business manager: Starting last summer, you have probably noticed a large number of projects going on around the parish. From clearing the retention pond and waste lot at the back of the property to demolishing the old farmhouse and its outbuildings, major landscaping around campus, and painting Croghan Hall. We've also had a number of unplanned projects that highlight the age of our facilities – such as repairing the water line that feeds Croghan Hall and the school. And there's much more to do!

In the near future we will have to replace both large heating and air conditioning units in the PAC – a major expense of nearly $50,000. We knew this was coming but had hoped to put off a bit longer to give us time to set aside more funds. The gas heating elements in each unit have reached the end of their service lives and are not repairable. The cooling units are functioning now, but we anticipate a major breakdown of one or both in the coming year. So we are going to replace both of them this spring.

In the church, we also have to repair the flat sections of the roof (the wing roofs) above the nave – a very expensive project given the height. After months of examination, we are confident we have traced the source of the water that drips into the cry room to the upper roof on the Brushy Creek side of the church. The roof on the PAC side isn't leaking yet, but it is in the same condition. So to save on equipment, crew and material expense, we will have both replaced at the same time. That repair will cost $26,000.

As you prayerfully reflect on your weekly offering, please consider the high expense of maintaining your parish facilities and grounds.

The mission of Prince of Peace is to share the fullness of the Gospel to all we encounter in our lives by equipping disciples to create and strengthen a personal relationship with Christ. By the grace of God, we are called to strive for personal holiness, participate fully in the vibrant life of the Church's Tradition and transform the world.
