pentecost sunday(OF year B & EF)

We pray often for vocations to the priesthood and religious life here at Prince of Peace, but how many of you have ever actually seen an ordination to the priesthood? This Friday at St Mary's downtown at 6p, Bishop Guglielmone will ordain Roger Morgan and Rich Wilson to the sacred priesthood. This is a great opportunity to experience the beautiful and rich ceremony in which a man is set apart for God by this sacrament of Holy Orders. Newly minted Father Morgan will celebrate a First Solemn Mass at St Mary's at 11a on the following Sunday morning, and I plan on being in attendance, along with other sons from the parish who have been ordained to the priesthood. It will be a joyful moment, not only to welcome a new priest into the Diocese, but to celebrate the gift of the priesthood to the entire church. To see so many priests around their Bishop, at the Chrism Mass or Ordinations, is always an impressive sight.

Today, we celebrate Pentecost Sunday, the Descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and the Blessed Virgin in the Upper Room. Pentecost is the third most important feast in the Church after Easter and Christmas, and ushers in the age of the Church, born from the side of Christ on the Cross and sent forth into the world to baptize, to preach and teach at Pentecost.

It is a good reminder that, at the end of these 50 days of Eastertide, where we celebrate that we have been washed, that now we are sent. Sent on mission. The Apostles, and their successors, the Bishops and Priests, have a specific mission to teach, govern and sanctify the People of God. But all of us, as disciples of Christ, have a mission to share the Good News as well. The missionary nature of the Church is its inner nature; we all participate in it. Whenever we leave Mass at Prince of Peace, we don't just go back home, or to our workplaces, or to ordinary life. We are sent forth into our mission field, into a world which needs the peace that passes understanding.

We certainly all need some Holy Ghost power to fulfill that mission. So it is important that we have, alongside our personal relationship with Jesus as Lord, a personal relationship with the Holy Spirit. In these days in which we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost, let us pray fervently for an outpouring of the Spirit's gifts upon us that we may do His work, and set the world on fire with love for God.

Fr Smith

prayer for the gifts of the holy spirit

Holy Spirit, divine Consoler, I adore You as my true God, with God the Father and God the Son. I adore You and unite myself to the adoration You receive from the angels and saints.

I give You my heart and I offer my ardent thanksgiving for all the grace which You never cease to bestow on me.

O Giver of all supernatural gifts, who filled the soul of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with such immense favors, I beg You to visit me with Your grace and Your love and to grant me the gift of holy fear, so that it may act on me as a check to prevent me from falling back into my past sins, for which I beg pardon.

Grant me the gift of piety, so that I may serve You for the future with increased fervor, follow with more promptness Your holy inspirations, and observe Your divine precepts with greater fidelity. Grant me the gift of knowledge, so that I may know the things of God and, enlightened by Your holy teaching, may walk, without deviation, in the path of eternal salvation.

Grant me the gift of fortitude, so that I may overcome courageously all the assaults of the devil, and all the dangers of this world which threaten the salvation of my soul.

Grant me the gift of counsel, so that I may choose what is more conducive to my spiritual advancement and may discover the wiles and snares of the tempter.

Grant me the gift of understanding, so that I may apprehend the divine mysteries and by contemplation of heavenly things detach my thoughts and affections from the vain things of this miserable world.

Grant me the gift of wisdom, so that I may rightly direct all my actions, referring them to God as my last end; so that, having loved Him and served Him in this life, I may have the happiness of possessing Him eternally in the next.

Amen.-St Alphonsus Liguori

summer bible institute 12-17 July at The Oratory: Center for Spirituality, 434 Charlotte Ave., Rock Hill, SC.

Old Testament-Topic: The Hidden Gems of the Bible and Our Faith

Recent scholarship has called attention to the importance of the books in the last third of the Hebrew canon (Ruth, Song of Songs, Ecclesiastes, Lamentations and Esther), along with Judith and Tobit. These books make a powerful statement on the value of constructing theology based on lived experience, rather than a theology enumerated by an all-knowing authority. These books question the certainties of dogma with an openness to a boundary-breaking love.

New Testament-Topic: The Gospel of John through Its Characters

The Fourth Gospel is filled with many major and minor characters who react and respond to Jesus in a variety of ways. Careful reading helps us to see them as not merely supporting actors who help shine light on the main character, Jesus. Rather, by getting to know them we learn who Jesus was for them and appreciate him more deeply for ourselves. Participants will spend the week going through the Gospel of John by focusing on its many characters.
