27 september 2015
twenty-sixth sunday in ordinary time (OF year B) eighteenth sunday after pentecost (EF)

In Psalm 119.164 we read, Seven times a day I praise you. In 1 Thessalonians 5.16-18, Paul writes: Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. The Scriptures call us to pray, but how do we do that? We know that the Mass is the highest form of prayer, because it is Jesus' self-offering to the Father. We know about our own private prayer, devotions and Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The Liturgy of the Hours, or Divine Office, is the way the Praying Church provides her children with a corporate, common prayer to mark the hours of the day.

Priests and deacons are required to pray the Divine Office every day. Many laypeople have also started to pray part or all of the Liturgy of the Hours as part of their daily discipline of prayer. It is comforting to know that, all over the world, an offering of praise is always rising to the Trinity. The Second Vatican Council urged the faithful to make the Divine Office their own:

Pastors of souls should see to it that the chief hours, especially Vespers, are celebrated in common in church on Sundays and the more solemn feasts. And the laity, too, are encouraged to recite the divine office, either with the priests, or among themselves, or even individually.
Sacrosanctum Concilium, Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, paragraph 100.

I have often encouraged you to download on your Smartphone one of the apps that makes the Divine Office very easy to pray: Ibreviary, Divine Office or Brevmeum. We do Night Prayer on Wednesdays together as part of Holy Hour. We have Night Prayer, or Compline, on Sundays in Advent and Lent, our penitential seasons. We tried our hand at Paschaltide Latin Vespers a couple of years ago.

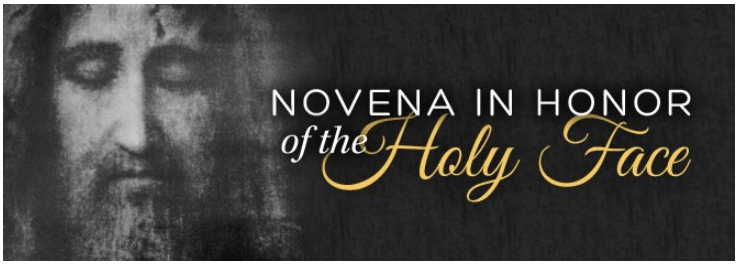
As Vatican II reminded us, pastors should make sure that the faithful make the Divine Office part of their spiritual lives. Before Vatican II, in some places, it was common to come to Vespers and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament on Sunday evenings. Television and the advent of evening Masses conspired against that tradition.

Beginning on the first Sunday of October, we will gather in the Church to celebrate Vespers, or Evening Prayer, in English according to the traditional Roman Breviary at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. We will learn how to sing the five psalms of Vespers and the Magnificat, the Song of Praise of Mary, in English, as well as the beautiful Latin Marian Antiphons after Vespers. It only takes 35 minutes or so, but is a beautiful way to join in the Prayer of the Church! We will pray Vespers for the rest of Ordinary Time, and then start back up again in 2016 when we get back to the green vestments!

Mark your calendars and add this to your Sunday afternoon routine!

Fr Smith

image of the holy face: St Therese of the child Jesus had a particular devotion to this image. Her feast day is 1 Oct. (OF) and 3 Oct. (EF).



novena in honor of the most holy face of Jesus

" All those who, attracted by my love, and venerating my countenance, shall receive, by virtue of my humanity, a brilliant and vivid impression of my divinity. This splendor shall enlighten the depths of their souls, so that in eternal glory the celestial court shall marvel at the marked likeness of their features with my divine countenance." (Our Lord Jesus Christ to St Gertrude)

"I firmly wish that my face reflecting the intimate pains of my soul, the suffering and love of my heart, be more honored! Whoever gazes upon me already consoles me."(Our Lord Jesus Christ to Sister Pierina) first sunday holy hour: Please join the Saint Rafka Maronite community as they gather for a holy hour on the first Sunday of the month at 3p. During the holy hour, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed, the Chaplet of Mercy is prayed, confessions are heard, and there is Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at the conclusion.

blessing of the animals: Saturday, 4 October is the Feast of St Francis of Assisi and when it is traditional to offer the blessing of the animals. Fr Tomlinson will offer this blessing after the 8a Mass on Saturday, 3 October on the grounds where the rectory use to be.

This week Catholic Teaching on Marriage and Annulments
Are annulments just a Catholic version of divorce? Nothing could be further from the truth. The differences are profound, and much of the confusion springs from a misunderstanding about marriage itself. Bishop Perry explains the key principles of the Sacrament of Marriage and applies them to divorce and annulments. This presentation answers the most commonly asked questions on this topic.

guild of st thomas aquinas: To share a weekly hour with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, please contact Lisa Buss at: 864.508.7123 or adoration@princeofpeacetaylors.org

church league basketball registration is open to children from K5-12th grade as well as men. Registration forms will be available in the Church office. Deadline for registration will be Sunday, 27 September. Basketball representatives will set up registration tables after 10a and 6p Mass on 27 September for families to sign-up. Practice will begin week of 4 October. This will be the last weekend for registration. Games will start in November and end in February. If you are interested in being a volunteer coach, please contact Brandon Calhoun at 423.6600.

svdp news The United Way campaign has already begun. If the company you work for offers to match your contributions to United Way, you can specify that both contributions be sent to 'St Vincent de Paul, Diocesan Council of Charleston." This can be a possibility of nearly doubling your contribution. Thank you for your consideration.

vespers: On the Sundays of October and November, we will celebrate Solemn Vespers, or Evening Prayer, in the church at 5p. This 30-35 minute service is a great way to join in the public prayer of the Church at the end of the day. We invite all of our altar servers and their families to join us these Sundays for Vespers. We will need a Thurifer, Crucifer, 2 Acolytes and an MC for Vespers. We invite altar servers interested in serving Vespers to come to a Special Practice, just for Vespers, this Sunday, 27 September at 5p. The practice should be about 40 minutes long.

Congratulations to

Gus Suarez who received candidacy for order of Deacon last Saturday, 19 September in Charleston.

The mission of Prince of Peace is to share the fullness of the Gospel to all we encounter in our lives by equipping disciples to create and strengthen a personal relationship with Christ. By the grace of God, we are called to strive for personal holiness, participate fully in the vibrant life of the Church's Tradition and transform the world.
