From the Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

There always seems to be one tragedy after another in the news. And, whenever it happens, you always have somebody who pipes up, "Why can't we all just get along?" We all have a sense that we are meant to be one. But, what does that unity look like? And, how does it respect legitimate diversity? November is, in one sense, a month which challenges us, as Christians, to think about what it means to be one. I mean, we all share one human nature. There's this great big beautiful sea of humanity out there. But, why do we seem like we mess it up so much? When Jesus became one of us, He united our humanity to His divinity. In Jesus, the many become one without losing their particularity, any more than the Unity of God is compromised by the Trinity of persons.

By baptism, we become part of this one Body of redeemed humanity in Christ. We celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, the feast of the Church Militant on earth made up of the soldiers of Christ who have been signed, sealed and delivered to fight, not with weapons of mass destruction, but love. Inasmuch as we belong fully to the one communion of the Church established by Christ, that unity in faith, morals and sacramental life makes us ever more one. It is only when we separate from that unity, by the grave sins of heresy, schism and apostasy, that we see that unity frayed. And, that causes conflict, suffering and disunity.

On 1 November, the Church celebrates the Feast of All Saints. We remember, not only the saints who have been recognized as such by a formal process whose memorials decorate the calendar throughout the year, but all of those soldiers of Christ who fought the good fight, finished the race and are crowned with an imperishable crown in heaven to co-reign with the Risen Lord forever. It is only when we give up the fight and give into evil, that we lose heaven and merit the absence of God, which is the hell that we choose and that God does not want for us. The unity of the sempiternal chorus of praise in heaven contrasts with the disordered cacophony of the damned.

The day after, the Church commemorates All Souls who are in need of that final purification from the wounds left behind by sin through purgatory before they are admitted to the celestial court of the Great King. The Church Suffering expiates those sins and heals the many divisions in our hearts to become one. But think of how, the souls in purgatory cannot help themselves at all. They are entirely dependent on the Mercy of God to transform them into the best version of themselves. But God allows us, and asks us to cooperate in that transformation by praying and offering sacrifices for them, and that incredible spiritual work of mercy, a fruit of living faith, is applied to these souls. When we forget the souls in purgatory, our beloved dead, charity in our own hearts lessens. The many divisions in our souls continue on, because we are too worried by the things of this earth to cooperate with God's work of making the hearts of all men one.

Purgatory was one of those things which gripped the imagination of simple people and piqued the creativity of speculative theologians for centuries. Our own age is deeply skeptical of what we cannot see, and even the hint of superstition makes us wary of emotional abuse and religious manipulation (and justly so). But, the reality is that our true unity is found in Christ, and Christ's Body, the Church, is Militant on earth, Suffering in purgatory and Triumphant in heaven. We are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses: angels, saints and souls awaiting their final transfiguration. Don't let your heart focus too much on this world. You're missing out on so much if you do!

Fr. Christopher J. Smith

from the book, Saints for Sinners, the incredible lives of these Saints testify to the truth of God's transforming love in those who are willing to surrender their lives to Him. These are the stories of St. Augustine of Hippo and St. Margaret of Cortona.

pregnancy loss

The Catholic Church recognizes that life exists from the moment of conception. Unfortunately, for those families who have suffered the loss of a pregnancy there is a lack of recognition for that precious life. Many times it is the recognition that can provide closure and comfort to those who have lost. Prince of Peace Catholic Church would like to welcome all families who are experiencing or have experienced a miscarriage to request a "Certificate of Precious Life." This certificate would be personalized for you and your child. Our hope is to not only provide families with some closure, but to acknowledge and always remember that your child, no matter how small, existed and was a gift from God. If interested or if you have questions, please contact Angie Zuentd at 330-221-9284 or azuendt@gmail.com.

Also, stop by our table in the Narthex to pick up a folder filled with great information about our Blue Ribbon School!

a few of our favorite scenes from school and school families

With a dose of cooler temperatures, we heard from several of our school families enjoying trips to the pumpkin patch and Justus Orchard during Fall Break (19-20 October)!

all souls day - thursday, 2 november

The entire month of November is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory; those who have died "in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvations; but after death undergo purifications, so as to achieve the holiness to enter the joy of Heaven" (CCC 1030, Purgatory). Masses to pray for the souls of the just who are being prepared for the glorious vision of God will be at:

board of remembrance

Please contact Maria Rauch with the name of your loved ones who died since All Souls Day 2016, so they can be read aloud before the 7p Mass on Thursday, 2 November. We will have a Board of Remembrance at the St Joseph Altar, which will be set up as a Requiem Altar for the month of November. Please bring copies of photos of your loved ones to pin to the board. At the end of the month of November, the board will be taken down and the pictures will be collected and stored in the Parish Office.

SING EVENING PRAYER

VESPERS

1 OCTOBER–26 NOVEMBER | SUNDAYS 5:00P–5:30P

EVENING PRAYER ACCORDING TO THE TRADITIONAL ROMAN BREVIARY IN ENGLISH

From the earliest centuries of the Church, Christians gathered in the evening on the Lord's Day to sing psalms, hymns and spiritual canticles. The official public evening prayer of the Church's Liturgy of the Hours is Vespers, named after the Vesper Star that rises to herald the fall of night. At Vespers, we sing five psalms; we listen to the Word of God, sing a hymn for the Evening. The highlight of the service is the Magnificat, the Canticle of Mary, in which the Altar and the Faithful are incensed as sign of honor and our prayers rising to God. After a prayer, we visit the Lady Altar to ask Mary's protection during the night.
