8 March 2015

third sunday of lent (OF year B & EF)

Next Sunday begins the Fourth Week of Lent, and it will be a very busy week indeed at Prince of Peace. Sunday is of course Laetare Sunday, when we will have the Blessing of Expectant Mothers on the Rose Sunday. We are blessed to have with us Fr Gregory Wilson, Pastor of St Mary, Help of Christians in Aiken. He will preach at all the Masses next weekend.

Directly after the 6p Mass on next Laetare Sunday, we will then begin our Forty Hours Devotion. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed in the Church for the Adoration of the faithful. We will sing the Litany of the Saints and Fr Wilson will give the first talk of the Forty Hours at 7p. On Monday night, there will be an English Mass at 6p, and at 7p another talk. Confessions will be offered throughout. On Tuesday, there will be a School Mass at 8.30a, and Fr Wilson will have a chance to give a spiritual conference to the children. Later that night at 6p, there will be another English Mass, and a conference at 7p, followed by Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament and the Close of the Forty Hours Devotion.

The Forty Hours Devotion as we know it today, began with St Charles Borromeo in Milan in 1577, although Christians gathered for 40 Hour prayer vigils for centuries. The Devotion was a response to moments of extreme need: war, plague, famine. We are calling this Forty Hours Devotion because there are so many people in our parish and in our world who are in need of prayer and intercession. I ask that every family that can, come to the evening sessions and also sign up for a Holy Hour during this time period.

On Thursday, 19 March, we celebrate Catholic Fathers' Day, the Feast of St Joseph, with an English Mass at 6p followed by a Procession and Blessing of the St Joseph's Table and Potluck.

On Friday, we are back to the Stations of the Cross, and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, our weekly Friday Lenten devotion.

I know that it is a lot to ask our parishioners to come almost every night of the week for Forty Hours, St Joseph and Stations. It is a lot! But it is also Lent, and I know that when we sacrifice our time, talent and treasure to enter into a deeper relationship with God during this holy season, the rewards will be great.

In 1631, when the Protestant armies of Gustavus Adolphus sacked Prague, a small statue of the Infant King was thrown into a rubbish heap. When a Carmelite friar dug up the statue and cleaned it up, the voice of the Christ Child came to him and said, "The more you honor Me, the more I will bless you." The more that all of us who call Prince of Peace our spiritual home honor the Prince of Peace present in the Blessed Sacrament, the more He will bless you. You all need those blessings for your families, for your work, for all your needs. Take this mid point week of Lent to reconnect with your faith in an amazing way!

Fr. Smith

regulations for fast and abstinence:

Fasting is to be observed by all 18 years of age and older, who have not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and juices, are allowed.

Abstinence is observed by all 14 years of age and older. On days of abstinence no meat is allowed. Note that when health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. When in doubt concerning fast and abstinence, the parish priest should be consulted.

Good Friday, (3 April), is a day of fast & abstinence. All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence. Fasting, almsgiving, and prayer are the three traditional disciplines of Lent. The faithful and catechumens should undertake these practices seriously in a spirit of penance and of preparation for baptism or renewal of baptismal vows at Easter.

guild of st thomas aquinas:

To ensure the Lord is never left alone while exposed in the Chapel, it is advised that each hour have two adorers "keeping watch." Please help us meet this goal by choosing an hour of your convenience. Please contact Lisa Buss at:

This week – Glimpses Along The Way of the Cross

In these three beautiful talks, Msgr. James Shea guides us along the Stations of the Cross, teaching us how to better open our hearts to the suffering and loneliness of Jesus on His way to Calvary. Weaving together the insights of keen believers like Fr Richard Neuhaus, Caryll Houselander, Archbishop Fulton Sheen, and Dr. James Edwards, these powerful meditations take us into the depths of Christ's agony, and back out again into the relief and joy of what His sacrifice means for us.

afternoons@peace: Join us for second Sunday of the month, Family Social Sunday, at afternoons@peace, today, 8 March in Croghan Hall from 4:30p-6p. afternoons@peace schedule is: 1st Sunday of the Month: Lectio Di "vino" Sunday (childcare provided), 2nd Sunday of the Month: Family Social Sunday, 3rd Sunday of the Month: Lectio Di "Vino" Sunday (childcare provided), 4th Sunday of the Month: Potluck & Family Rosary. Join us for afternoons@peace each Sunday from 4:30-6p in Croghan Hall and help build up the community of our beautiful parish.

The mission of Prince of Peace is to share the fullness of the Gospel to all we encounter in our lives by equipping disciples to create and strengthen a personal relationship with Christ. By the grace of God, we are called to strive for personal holiness, participate fully in the vibrant life of the Church's Tradition and transform the world.
