From the Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

As a graduate of Greenville County public schools, I have a keen awareness of how important the public school system is in preparing leaders of the future. The health of our public schools is important for all of us, and not just because we are taxpayers. But public schools are also often held captive to whatever ideologies or pedagogical fads may be popular at the time. There is a real tendency in some quarters to push the agenda that education is a function of the state, and that governmental experts and bureaucrats know better.

Our Catholic faith teaches us that parents are the primary educators of their children. The state can be a wonderful support in that mission, but parents cannot abdicate their responsibility to form children to the state. We are also keenly aware that, as much as advocates of public education like to assert that they are philosophically and theologically neutral, that is very much not the case.

When Catholic immigrants started to come in large numbers to this country in the 19th century, they built an impressive system of parish schools where the Catholic view of the human person and faith was the heart of education. While in some places this did encourage a kind of “ghetto” mentality of Catholics as separate and distinct, it also created a unity of vision and culture that nourished generations of Catholics. Parishes with their schools often became the entire world for the families that were a part of them.

The social and cultural revolutions of the 1960s turned that system on its head. In many places, Catholic education was deliberately secularized and watered down, to such an extent that many people doubted the worth of parish schools, and many have closed in this country. In the past decade, Catholic leaders have become aware that this process has had disastrous effects for handing on the Catholic faith. The fact that Millennials are now the least religious age group in American history is not unrelated to the softening of Catholic identity in our schools.

Catholic schools are more than just safe places with good academics, positive discipline and individual attention. When they are intentionally communities of faith which are intimately related to the parish, the cell of Christian sacramental life, they are a powerful vehicle for the transmission of the faith and the transformation of the natural order. Young people can be formed in the life of grace, equipped with moral reasoning and given an enthusiasm for faith in Catholic schools in ways that no other type of school can approach.

Our school is the principal apostolate of the parish for handing on the Catholic faith. It is a ministry of the parish, and hence reflects the values and spiritual life of the parish. It should come as no surprise that I am very vigilant as to how the common life of our school conforms to its Catholic identity, not out of a rigid slavery to law, but of a joyful authenticity of the Gospel. Please support your parish school in every way you can. If you have school aged children, I would like you to go on a tour of the school and learn about what we do. Pray to discern whether the time is right for your children to join us. And if you don't have school aged children, will you make a commitment to earmark funds for financial assistance for children of the parish who deserve a Catholic education but can't for lack of funds? Stop by and see Mrs. Tully, our Principal. Her door is always open, as is mine. Let's join together in this great adventure of the future!

candlemas on 2 february

Candlemas, also known as the Feast of Light, is a day of purification, renewal, and hope. On this day, exactly 40 days after Christmas, we commemorate Mary's obedience to Mosaic law by submitting herself to the Temple for the ritual of purification, as commanded in Leviticus 12:2-8.

There will be blessing of candles at Candlemas on 2 February. You may either bring your own candles to be blessed or you can order Candlemas candles from the parish office for $5. On 2 February, the candles will be in the Narthex with your name on the box. If you place your order in the collection basket please be sure to write Candlemas candles on the envelope and your name. Candles to be blessed are to be placed on the table inside the communion rail before Mass.

SING EVENING PRAYER

VESPERS

14 JANUARY—11 FEBRUARY | SUNDAYS 5:00P–5:30P

EVENING PRAYER ACCORDING TO THE TRADITIONAL ROMAN BREVIARY IN ENGLISH

From the earliest centuries of the Church, Christians gathered in the evening on the Lord's Day to sing psalms, hymns and spiritual canticles. The official public evening prayer of the Church's Liturgy of the Hours is Vespers, named after the Vesper Star that rises to herald the fall of night. At Vespers, we sing five psalms; we listen to the Word of God, sing a hymn for the Evening. The highlight of the service is the Magnificat, the Canticle of Mary, in which the Altar and the Faithful are incensed as sign of honor and our prayers rising to God. After a prayer, we visit the Lady Altar to ask Mary's protection during the night.
