From the Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

As a child, I remember watching on the evening news stories about Palm Sunday celebrations throughout the world. I would go into the front yard and break off a crepe myrtle branch (because we didn't have palm trees in Greenville!) and wave it around, making up my own songs to Jesus. Later on, in a Christian bookstore, I came across The Book of Common Prayer, the liturgical text of the Anglican Church, and was amazed to find out that there were Christians who ritually re-enacted the moments of Jesus' Passion and Death. It ignited in me a love for liturgy that has lasted to this day. After I saved up my allowance to buy that book, I became an Anglican and swum around in the Thames before I found the Tiber and converted to Catholicism. And in the heart of the Roman Church, I was able as a young man to spend Holy Week in some incredible places: the Fraternity of St Peter's seminaries in Scranton and Wigratzbad, the Institute of Christ the King's house of formation in Florence, the Oratory in London, the famous Holy Week of Seville, and so, so many churches in Rome over the years.

Holy Week is really a passion for me like you can't even begin to understand. I love and relish all of the Church's beautiful ceremonies and have always been dedicated as a priest to making sure that they lead us in deep interaction with the Mystery we celebrate through and in them. I have spent years poring over the history and texts of Holy Week from all times and places. But now I realize that I have to share this wonderful gift that has been such a joyful part of my life. On Thursdays during March at 7p in Croghan Hall, I would like to invite you to come to a series called Celebrating the Paschal Mystery: Holy Week in the Roman Liturgy. We are going to delve deep into the theology and history behind the impressive ceremonies and profound texts of the rites of Holy Week. I am absolutely convinced that the more Catholics know why we do what we do, and appreciate the depth of the sacred liturgy, they will enter into their faith at a much deeper level.

I also want to issue you an invitation and challenge: I want you to come to church for every service we have in Holy Week, as well as my class. If you have never engaged the Easter Triduum before, take this as one of the best opportunities to enrich your faith you may ever have. Experience Holy Week like you never have before…

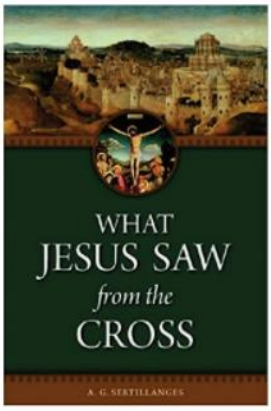
fr smith's lenten recommended reading



Written early in this century by Rev. A. G. Sertillanges, a priest who lived in Jerusalem, this acclaimed devotional classic gives you vivid and dramatic details not included in the Gospel: With Jesus, you'll be jostled by crowds as you enter Jerusalem, choke on the dust of the narrow streets, experience the exotic oriental smells of the city at festival time, share the Last Supper with the disciples, stare into the face of Jesus' accusers, and be there as He dies on the Cross.

"Good book- very moving and makes you feel like you are there." - Carole Harris (parishioner) suggested title: Meditations on the Stations of the Cross

The stations of the Cross is a devotion and reflection in which we walk alongside Jesus on His way to Calvary. By prayerfully participating in this meditation we are able to clearly see through His passion and death the depths of God's love for mankind and the price He paid for our salvation. This presentation includes powerful meditations by Dr. Ronald Thomas, Assistant Professor of Theology at Belmont Abbey College, with prayer responses by students from the college.

lenten regulations 2018

The present laws of the Church regarding fast and abstinence during the Season of Lent are as follows:

1. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast. On days of fast, one full meal is allowed. Two lesser meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted. Catholics who have completed their 18th year are bound by this law until the beginning of their 60th year.
2. Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent are also days of abstinence. On days of abstinence, meat should not be eaten at any meal. The law of abstinence binds all Catholics who have completed their 14th year.

The Obligation to observe, as a whole or "substantially," the penitential days specified by the Church is a serious obligation. The Code of Canon Law states: "On these days (of Penance), the faithful are in a special manner to devote themselves to prayer, to engage in works of piety and charity, to deny themselves, by fulfilling their obligations more faithfully and especially by observing the fast and abstinence..."
