From our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

Last week in my bulletin column I mentioned that, when a priest is ordained, his hands are anointed with sacred chrism, to set them apart to bless and consecrate, as the hands of Jesus. But there's more: the old custom, which was part of the old ritual and is still followed in some places, was for the bishop to bind the hands of the newly ordained priest with a linen cloth called a manutergium. The priest would then remove the oil from his hands with that cloth. A venerable tradition was for the newly ordained priest to then give that cloth to his mother, who would then have her hands wrapped in it in her tomb. What an eloquent symbol of the sacrifice the mother of a priest makes in giving her son to God, just as the Blessed Virgin wrapped the body of her son, Jesus, in a linen cloth, after he was taken down from the Cross after His sacrifice.

Not every woman is called to be the mother of a man called to the ministerial priesthood by the Church. But, every woman who is baptized exercises the priesthood of the baptized, offering her life as a sacrifice for souls entrusted to her care. One particular vocation of femininity is motherhood, when God calls some women to cooperate with His plan to increase the number of His children on earth, and then to call them to spiritual adoption in baptism. Women are called to be priests in this sense, and that spiritual priesthood is invested with incredible dignity. Without it, the priesthood of the apostolic ministry could never exist!

In addition, there are not an infrequent number of Catholic women who deepen that baptismal priesthood with a vocation within their vocation of spiritual motherhood to priests. They pray and sacrifice for priests as their spiritual sons!

In the last century, an intrepid parish priest, Msgr Alessandro Canora, gathered the mothers of his parish around to challenge them to pray and sacrifice for the priesthood. His miniscule village of Lu in northern Italy produced 152 priests and 171 nuns during his time there! Every ten years, all of the priests and nuns that came from the village get together for a reunion.

The website <http://spiritualmotherhoodforpriests.blogspot.com> has not been updated in a while, but is a useful resource for women of our parish who may be exploring how spiritual motherhood of priests can be part of their spiritual discipline. And to all of our mothers, thank you for saying yes to life!

novena to the holy spirit

Pope Paul VI taught us that the Holy Spirit is the "Principle Agent" of evangelization. It is essential that we seek his help and cultivate devotion to the Holy Spirit. Over a century ago, Pope Leo XIII asked that every church in the world pray the Novena to the Holy Spirit every year in the nine days leading up to Pentecost. The Novena to the Holy Spirit began on 11 May, but you're encouraged to join. Novena booklets are available in the Narthex.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in us the fire of Your love. Send forth Your Spirit and we shall be created, and You shall renew the face of the Earth.

mother's day

HAPPY Mother's DAY

Mary, on this day when we honor all mothers, we turn to you. We thank the Lord whom you serve for the great gift of motherhood. Never has it been known that anyone who sought your intercession was left unaided by grace.

Dear Mother, thank you for your "Yes" to the invitation of the angel which brought heaven to earth and changed human history. You opened yourself to God's word and the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.

Dear Mother, intercede for all of our mothers. Ask your Divine Son to give them the grace of surrendered love so that they could join with you in giving their own "Fiat." May they find daily strength to say yes to the call to the sacrificial love- the very heart of the vocation of motherhood. May their love and witness be a source of great inspiration for all of us called to follow your Son.

On this Mothers day, Mother of the Word Incarnate, pray for us who have recourse to you...

In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.
