From our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Congratulations to our 53 young people who received the Sacrament of Confirmation on Thursday, 17 May 2018 with the Most Reverend Robert E. Guglielmone, Bishop of Charleston!

In speaking with Confirmands in 2013, Pope Francis gave sound advice: “Pay attention, my young friends,” the Holy Father said, “to go against the current; this is good for the heart, but we need courage to swim against the tide. Jesus gives us this courage! There are no difficulties, trials or misunderstandings to fear, provided we remain united to God as branches to the vine, provided we do not lose our friendship with Him, provided we make ever more room for Him in our lives.”

Happenings & Needs

meet fr. michael cunningham

Fr. Michael J. Cunningham, FSSP, was ordained in Omaha, Nebraska, on Saturday May 26, 2018, and offered his first Mass the next afternoon at St. James Catholic Church in St. Joseph, MO. Fr. Cunningham was assisted by Fr. Rhone Lillard, FSSP, with Fr. Zachary Akers, FSSP, assisting as Deacon, and Deacon Daniel Powers, FSSP, as Subdeacon.

Father was born November 24, 1980, in Fort Pierce, FL. Very soon after that, his family moved to Spartanburg, SC where he lived until entering the seminary. A cradle Catholic, he asked a question to Jesus through Mary and followed that question to the altar through the Fraternity of St. Peter. As a kid, Cunningham grew up with an older brother, Steve, and a younger sister, Kristina, and spent his free time playing sports and helping with the family business. His Dad, Steve, served as a US Navy corpsman in the Vietnam War and died from health complications due to exposure to Agent Orange in 2007. And, Donna, Cunningham's mom was the spiritual leader of the family and a huge influence on where he and the whole family is today. Cunningham pursued a career in baseball after college only to have that goal pass him by. So, he pursued other careers and did not think about a vocation to the priesthood, marriage was his thought. God had other plans though. Cunningham felt the “fingernail of God” scratching at his heart and was moved by grace to jump through the open door of a priestly vocation. Considering all opportunities, he felt most at home with the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter.

Father credits his hearing of his call to the priesthood to the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God. Fr. Cunningham asked Mary, in a time of disorientation and exhaustion, to “ask your Son what He wants me to be and I’ll do it. Whether that is to be a priest or to be married...I don’t care, I’ll do it.” She, as always, asked her Son what He wanted and He gave the answer to Father through Mary’s intervention. In biblical terms it was like the scene at the wedding feast of Cana (John 2: 3-5) specifically what Mary said “do whatever He tells you.” Leading to the answer given by Jesus (John 21:22), “follow Me.”

blood drive

There has been a notable drop in blood donations in Greenville county by church organized drives. And, the need for donors in our area is great. On Sunday, 10 June we’re seeking 33 donors to roll up their sleeves between 11a-1.30p (28 more are needed at the time of writing this). Did you know that someone needs blood every 2 seconds and that potentially 3 people can be saved from your 1 donation? Donors should be in good health, weight at least 110lbs, be 16 or older, have eaten a solid meal, and be well hydrated. Every donor will receive a $10 gift card to Chick-fil-A. To save a seat at a specific time (every 15 minutes there will be 3 seats open):
