From Our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

When the Emperor Charlemagne asked the Benedictine scholar Alcuin what the point of divine worship, the monk replied, the liturgy is the joy of God. If baptism purifies the soul of original sin, our incorporation to Christ also has a cultic effect: it renders us capax Dei – capable of God! The baptismal character imprinted on the soul gives us the right and duty to give homage to God. As a result, the Christian cannot find true happiness outside of God. The joy of God inundates the heart of man, consuming him with an infinite love. This reality risks being unknown to so many today, who ignore the first three commandments: You shall have only one God. You shall not take the name of the Lord Your God in vain. Keep holy the Sabbath. Yet, how can we observe the other commandments, about our neighbor, if we can't observe the ones about God?

Today everyone wants to talk about change, progress, being on the "right side of history." Yet, the moral law is not just moralism. It is an effusion of the love of God in the heart of man, in which truth transforms our actions. But in our own time, the Good News of salvation is not always presented as a joyful proclamation of the triumph of Our Lord over sin and death. But, our faith is sustained, illustrated and nourished by the sacred liturgy and its ceremonies, symbols, customs and chants which are mystical extensions of the Incarnation! As Pius XII wrote in Mediator Dei, "The high point and center of the Christian religion is the mystery of the Most Holy Eucharist that Christ, the Sovereign Priest, instituted and wishes to be perpetually renewed in the Church by her ministers." The Holy Mass is the supreme witness of our faith, and inclines our hearts to be open to the Redeemer as a pure source, so that we may be more attentive, faithful and devoted to Him.

Defending the moral law necessarily demands the rediscovery of our faith and its worship. Let us return to the contemplation of our Roman liturgy, that produces so many graces. No wonder then that St Teresa of Avila once said, "I am astonished at the grandeur of the ceremonies of the Church!" We cannot teach the moral life authentically without the faith, and we cannot transmit the faith without the dignity and splendor of the liturgy!
