From our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

I know it may be hard to believe, but I was a layman once, many years ago. And, I remember going to church by myself. Since my family wasn't Catholic, I was the only one to go to church, and it wasn't until later that I had friends to go to Mass with. Many of our regular Sunday Massgoers come to Mass by themselves. I was usually okay with it, and then went about my day. But, one thing that made it nice was that I often had friends who invited me for Sunday lunch or dinner with them. I had Catholic families often with lots of children, who adopted me as one of their own, and always had me around to lunch or dinner. On Sundays, this was very crucial.

Sunday is the Lord's Day, and it is a family day, a fun day for rest and relaxation as well as worship. Do you celebrate it as a joyful occasion? And, do you invite others to participate in that rejoicing? I think we have many people in our parish who go to Mass and then go home alone to eat and spend the rest of the day by themselves. Sometimes that is just what the doctor ordered, but sometimes it can be quite lonely. I want to challenge our families: have you gotten to know someone in the parish who comes to Mass by themselves and invited them to Sunday brunch with your family? People who come to Mass by themselves, have you invited someone else you see for coffee after Mass or for a quick bite to eat afterwards.

The central act of worship of the Christian faith is a meal: sharing a table is part of the mix, and enjoying food and fellowship flows from the church into the world. In the Oratorian tradition, they used to say that the refectory is an extension of the sanctuary. The dining room is a flowing forth from church. Putting out the best linens, silverware, china to celebrate the Lord's Day, observing rituals of welcome, prayer and thanksgiving: what a way to make Sunday special.

I have been watching a TV show on Amazon called Srugim, about Orthodox Jewish thirty-somethings who are all single, looking for spouses, living in Jerusalem. They are all trying to live a religious life while being in the world, and much of it reminds me of how challenging it is to stay focused. I love watching their commitment to the Sabbath, and it makes me think we need to recover the Lord's Day in a more intentional matter. Every episode has a Shabbat meal, and while every meal also has serious personal drama, it is also part of a lifestyle of worship and obedience to God's commands. Let's reclaim Sunday again! Mass, good meals, welcoming others, Vespers, fun and relaxation: and set aside all of the worldly stuff for Monday.

Suggested Title: St John Paul the Great

Discover the five great loves of Pope Saint John Paul II as Jason Evert, renowned Catholic speaker and author, shares remarkable stories about this saint's life from those who knew him, including bishops, students whom he taught, and Swiss Guards who interacted with him daily. Jason presents a wealth of insights about this holy man who promoted devotion to Divine Mercy and Marian consecration, helped defeat communism in Europe, wrote the Theology of the Body, and embraced young people like no other.

welcome new parishioners

We're thrilled you're part of our parish family: Michael & Bernadette Lella and Family.

- All youth ages in 9th-12th grade are invited to participate in CYO (Catholic Youth Organization) on Sundays at 7p in Parish House!
- Volunteers are needed to help with dinner for approximately 20 youth! Anything from a home-made meal to heating up something purchased would help. To provide a meal for our CYO, please contact Stephanie and John Lasitter at s.j.lasitter@gmail.com. Dinner is at 6.50p Sundays.

The Five First Saturdays devotion – Our Lady of Fatima appeared to 3 children in 1917, and requested a particular devotion on 5 consecutive FIRST Saturdays. This devotion is one of the principal points of the Fatima message. It centers on the urgent need for mankind to offer reparation and expiate for the many injuries that the Immaculate Heart of Mary suffers from the hands of both impious and indifferent men. To help you fulfill this request made by Our Lady of Fatima, plan to attend our First Saturday Masses on November 3, December 1, January 5, February 2, March 2, April 6, and May 4.

- On the First Saturday during 5 Consecutive Months, the Devotion consists of 1) Going to Confession, 2) Receiving the Sacrament of Holy Communion, 3) Saying five decades of the Rosary, and 4) Meditating for 15 minutes on the mysteries of the Rosary. All offered in REPARATION for the sins of blasphemy and ingratitude committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

save the date

Best-selling author, speaker, and podcaster, Matt Fradd will be speaking at Prince of Peace on Wednesday, 20 March and Thursday, 21 March 2019. Stay tuned to the bulletin, website, and social media for more details to follow.
