A letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

Would you like to see Jesus, to hear and touch Him? The Church Fathers remind us that the signs and wonders, miracles and teachings of Christ have passed over into the seven life-giving sacraments that are celebrated in and by the Church. But many Catholics today seem to have lost the sense of awe and the transformative power of beauty that are in the sacraments. Centuries of rationalization, secularization and desecralization, and the pervasive influence of evangelical Protestant ideas of the relationship between faith, personal spiritual responsibility and the sacraments have ravaged many Catholics' approach to the sacraments. I am absolutely convinced that the more we reclaim our true Catholic identity and restore Catholic culture based on the liturgy, prayer, sacraments, evangelization, catechesis and works of mercy, the sacraments will come alive once more.

Lent is coming, and I know you are looking into all kinds of ways to grow in your faith. Last year we explored through a religious education series the rites and ceremonies of Holy Week, and my preaching the whole year after centered on the concept of the Paschal Mystery: the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Christ as encountered in the Sacred Liturgy. But the liturgy is more than just Mass; it is the entire sacramental economy of the Church. So, this Lent, I want to focus on the sacraments by offering as your spiritual reading a work of incredible theological, historical and spiritual depth, but which is also very accessible.

Monsignor Nicola Bux is one of the world's leading liturgical and sacramental theologians today. His recent book, No Trifling Matter: Taking the Sacraments Seriously Again, will make you rethink each one of the great seven rites in your life. As he writes, the sacraments "are not symbolic actions of the Church, but efficacious acts of the presence of Christ who, acting in this way, binds man to himself, and wishes to bind him in order to give him the life of the Spirit and carry him back to the Father from whom he has distanced himself on account of sin. This is the work of Jesus."

Now, if you decide to buy this book (and I really recommend it!), then if you choose Amazon, then remember to go through the Amazon Smile portal and make Prince of Peace Catholic Parish or School your partner. We are blessed to have St Benedict's Catholic Store in the area, so please remember to patronize local Catholic business, too!

Fraternus is a mentoring program for boys from 6th to 12th grade run by the men of the parish 18-99yo! All men are invited to mentor, regardless of whether they have a family member in the program. The men form a brotherhood of Christian men seeking virtue and then they invite the young men into that brotherhood.

- 6th-12th graders are invited to join Frat Nights on Wednesdays from 7-8:45pm in the PAC. To learn more, contact Paul Pizzuti at 864.501.8954 or Thomas Connelly at thomconnelly@gmail.com.

fraternus excursion—april

Fraternus is hosting an excursion for boys 6th-12th grade on 12-14 April (leave 6p, return 10a) at St. Joseph's Farm, a ministry in Rutherfordton, NC run by Jason Craig, a founder of Fraternus. Jason has promised to do a pig roast, teach us how to use a band saw, and show us North Carolina's smallest micro dairy. Dads are welcome to attend, even if you don't regularly attend, but all will be required to have completed safe environment training prior to going (available by our parish). The cost is $40 per person, max $80 per family. Scholarships are available. Contact Paul Pizzuti at 864-501-8954.

annual POP art party

Our annual POP Art Party celebrates our parish school with a fun evening of togetherness with a festive theme! lenten regulations

The present laws of the Church regarding fast and abstinence during the Season of Lent are as follows:

1. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast. On days of fast, one full meal is allowed. Two lesser meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted. Catholics who have completed their 18th year are bound by this law until the beginning of their 60th year.
2. Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent are also days of abstinence. On days of abstinence, meat should not be eaten at any meal. The law of abstinence binds all Catholics who have completed their 14th year.

The obligation to observe, as a whole or "substantially," the penitential days specified by the Church is a serious obligation. The Code of Canon Law states: 'On these days (of Penance), the faithful are in a special manner to devote themselves to prayer, to engage in works of piety and charity, to deny themselves, by fulfilling their obligations more faithfully and especially by observing the fast and abstinence....'

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

pilgrimage of prayer and mercy

The Felician Sisters of South Carolina, together with the Board of Directors of the Felician Center, invite you to join them for a "Lenten Pilgrimage of Prayer and Mercy" on Saturday, 16 March 2019. This pilgrimage to Kingstree, South Carolina and to the Felician Center is a unique opportunity for those from our parish to associate themselves even more closely through prayer and service with the mission and ministry of the Felician Center.

The pilgrimage will begin at 11a with Mass at the Shrine of Our Lady of Joyful Hope celebrated by Fr. Smith and conclude at 5p. Participants will hear talks on the spirituality and vision of Blessed Angela, learn more about the work of the Felicians here in South Carolina, and render acts of service by helping in the clothing closet, food pantry, or other service area. Prayers for Blessed Angela's intercession for specific needs and a blessing with her relics will be offered for all at the end of Mass. This is an excellent opportunity to spiritually prepare for Easter through prayer and acts of service while learning more about the work we already support at the Felician Center.

Transportation, for which there may be a nominal cost, will be arranged from Prince of Peace based on interest and sufficient numbers.
