Excerpt from The Liturgical Year

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

Dom Prosper Guéranger in his series The Liturgical Year tells us of a fascinating ceremony that is part of Papal Rome on this Laetare Sunday, midpoint of Lent!

The blessing of the Golden Rose is one of the ceremonies peculiar to the Fourth Sunday of Lent, which is called on this account Rose Sunday. The thoughts suggested by this flower harmonize with the sentiments wherewith the Church would now inspire her Children. The joyous time of Easter is soon to give them a spiritual Spring, of which that of nature is but a feeble image. Hence, we cannot be surprised that the institution of this ceremony is of a very ancient date. We find it observed under the Pontificate of St. Leo the Ninth (eleventh century); and we have a Sermon on the Golden Rose preached by the glorious Pope Innocent the Third, on this Sunday, and in the Basilica of Holy Cross in Jerusalem. In the Middle Ages, when the Pope resided in the Lateran Palace, having first blessed the Rose, he went on horseback to the Church of the Station. He wore the mitre, was accompanied by all the Cardinals, and held the blessed Flower in his hand. Having reached the Basilica, he made a discourse on the mysteries symbolized by the beauty, the color, and the fragrance of the Rose. Mass was then celebrated. After the Mass, the Pope returned to the Lateran Palace. Surrounded by the sacred College, he rode across the immense plain which separates the two Basilicas, with the mystic Flower still in his hand. We may imagine the joy of the people as they gazed upon the holy symbol. When the procession had got to the Palace gates, if there were a Prince present, it was his privilege to hold the stirrup, and assist the Pontiff to dismount; for which filial courtesy he received the Rose, which had received so much honor and caused such joy.

At present, the ceremony is not quite so solemn; still the principal rites are observed. The Pope blesses the Golden Rose in the Vestibule; he anoints it with Holy Chrism, over which he sprinkles a scented powder, as formerly; and when the hour for Mass is come, he goes to the Palace Chapel, holding the Flower in his hand. During the Holy Sacrifice, it is fastened to a golden rose-branch prepared for it on the Altar. After the Mass, it is brought to the Pontiff, who holds it in his hand as he returns from the Chapel to the Vestibule. It is usual for the Pope to send the Rose to some Prince or Princess, as a mark of honor; sometimes, it is a City or a Church that receives the Flower.

We subjoin a free translation of the beautiful Prayer used by the Sovereign Pontiff when blessing the Golden Rose. It will give our readers a clearer appreciation of this ceremony, which adds so much solemnity to the Fourth Sunday of Lent. "O God! by whose word and power all things were created, and by whose will they are all governed! O thou, that art the joy and gladness of all thy Faithful people! we beseech thy Divine Majesty, that thou vouchsafe to bless and sanctify this Rose, so lovely in its beauty and fragrance. We are to bear it, this day, in our hands, as a symbol of spiritual joy; that thus, the people that is devoted to thy service, being set free from the captivity of Babylon, by the grace of thine Only Begotten Son, who is the glory and the joy of Israel, may show forth, with a sincere heart, the joys of that Jerusalem, which is above, and is our Mother. And whereas thy Church seeing this symbol, exults with joy, for the glory of thy Name;- do thou, O Lord! give her true and perfect happiness. Accept her devotion, forgive us our sins, increase our faith; heal us by thy word, protect us by thy mercy; remove all obstacles; grant us all blessings; that thus, this same thy Church may offer unto thee the fruit of good works; and walking in the odor of the fragrance of that Flower, which sprang from the Root of Jesse, and is called the Flower of the Field, and the Lily of the Valley, may she deserve to enjoy an endless joy in the bosom of heavenly glory, in the society of all the Saints, together with that Divine Flower, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen."

The stations of the Cross is a devotion and reflection in which we walk alongside Jesus on His way to Calvary. By prayerfully participating in this meditation we are able to clearly see through His passion and death the depths of God's love for mankind and the price He paid for our salvation. This presentation includes powerful meditations by Dr. Ronald Thomas, Assistant Professor of Theology at Belmont Abbey College, with prayer responses by students from the college.

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

kingstree donations

The children served by the sisters at Kingstree are in need of new socks for children and adults. Please deposit the socks in the brown bin by the glass doors. We will collect these until Sunday, 14 April.

lenten regulations

All Fridays during Lent are days of abstinence. On days of abstinence, meat should not be eaten at any meal. The law of abstinence binds all Catholics who have completed their 14th year.

compline

Compline (also known as Night Prayer) is the final church service (or office) of the day in the Christian tradition of canonical hours. The prayers are always the same, so it is very easy to learn! We will have Compline on Sundays during Lent at 7.30p in the church thru 7 April.

middle school bible study—summer

Encounter: Experiencing God in the Everyday is more than a Bible study program. It is a life-changing experience that speaks directly to the hearts and minds of middle schoolers. Maria Barontini will be holding this study for entering 6th, 7th, and 8th graders this summer. Dates for the study are 11 June, 25 June, 9 July, and 16 July from 4-6p in Croghan Hall. Cost for the study will be $15. Please contact Maria Barontini to register your child by 31 May 2019 or with any questions.

stations of the cross and benediction

Stations of the Cross and Benediction will be Fridays 7p thru 12 April. On 19 April at 12p, we'll have Stations and pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

144 project—a family lenten sacrifice

Consider joining us this Lent in a special sacrifice for our community to support the primary apostolate of the parish, our school! The 144 project includes a numbered envelope 1-144. Parishioners and school families are invited to choose the envelope(s) of their choice and make a donation of at least the number on the envelope. If everyone donates the amount on their envelopes (from $1 to $144), the school will receive $10,440! In honor of your returned envelope, a tulip bearing your name (or the name of your family) will be added to our 144 project cross! Thank you for your prayers and support of our parish school!

Founded in 1285, the La Maîtrise de Reims has one of the longest established musical foundations in France. Consisting of 220 boys and girls aged 7 to 15, the choirs sing regularly at Cathedral services, special events around the city of Reims, and across Europe. La Maîtrise begins a US tour in March and will stop in Greenville, South Carolina for a concert on April 1, 2019. A variety of works will be performed to be chosen from 13th century Gregorian chant to Renaissance and Baroque motets to 20th century masters John Rutter and Alice Parker. Chicora Voices, the Children's Choir of Greenville will be featured on several pieces as the host choir for this tour stop. A reception will follow the concert. Adult tickets are $10 and students tickets are free. Tickets are available at www.chicoravoices.org/tickets or at the Music Office at Prince of Peace Catholic Church.
