Letter from Our Pastor

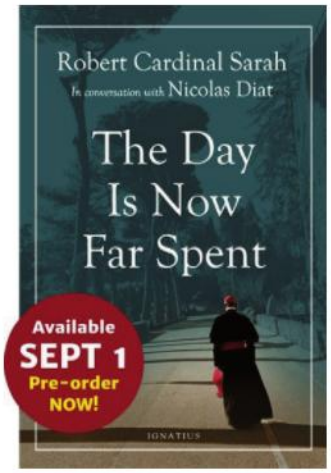
An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,



Robert Cardinal Sarah, the Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship, has written a new book which will be published in English on 1 September as The Day is Now Far Spent. You can pre-order it at https://www.ignatius.com/The-Day-Is-Now-Far-Spent-P3301.aspx . In this last excerpt, we will whet our appetite for the book with a final note from an interview with The Catholic Herald on 5 April.

9) You end this beautiful book with a section entitled "Rediscovering Hope: The Practice of the Christian Virtues." What do you mean by this? In what way can practicing these virtues be a remedy for the multifarious crisis we have spoken about in this interview?

We should not imagine a special program that could provide a remedy for the current multi-faceted crisis. We have simply to live our Faith, completely and radically. The Christian virtues are the Faith blossoming in all the human faculties. They mark the way for a happy life in harmony with God. We must create places where they can flourish. I call upon Christians to open oases of freedom in the midst the desert created by rampant profiteering. We must create places where the air is breathable, or simply where the Christian life is possible. Our communities must put God in the center. Amidst the avalanche of lies, we must be able to find places where truth is not only explained but experienced. In a word, we must live the Gospel: not merely thinking about it as a utopia, but living it in a concrete way. The Faith is like a fire, but it has to be burning in order to be transmitted to others. Watch over this sacred fire! Let it be your warmth in the heart of this winter of the West. "If God is for us, who is against us?" (Rom 8:31). In the disaster, confusion, and darkness of our world, we find "the light that shines in the darkness" (cf. Jn 1:5): He who said "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life" (Jn 14:6).

Fr. Christopher E. Smith

Memorial Day Prayer

Heavenly Father, On this Memorial Day, we pray for those who courageously laid down their lives for the cause of freedom. May the example of their sacrifice inspire in us the selfless love of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Bless the families of our fallen troops, and fill their homes and their lives with your strength and peace. In union with people of goodwill of every nation, embolden us to answer the call to work for peace and justice, and thus, seek an end to violence and conflict around the globe. We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.

minor rogation days

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday (27-29 May) we commemorate the minor Rogation Days, traditional days of prayer, and formerly fasting preceding the feast of the Ascension. The word "rogation" has its origins in the Latin word "rogare", which means to supplicate or ask, and the purpose of the Days is to beg God for His mercy, to turn away His anger, and to ask Him to bless the fruits of the earth while protecting us from natural disasters.

And I say to you: Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.
– Luke 11:9-10, from the Gospel for the Rogation Mass

Reach out to Greg at 704.614.2350 or GDuncan@Diocesan.com to learn more. Thank you to each of you who advertise and/or support advertisers with your patronage and word of mouth.

archives committee

The Prince of Peace Archives committee was established late last year with the mission to catalog and retain documents, photos, and other media in order to preserve the vibrant history of our parish. So far, we have determined the scope of the documents to be collected and have had meetings with founding members of the parish to start the process. Before we take possession of any parishioner's keepsakes, we committed to them that everything would be stored in a secure cabinet. Since this is a new committee, it has no budget for any supplies. The team is looking at a Sandusky 72" H electronic lock cabinet which costs about $500. If anyone has a similar type of lockable cabinet that they no longer need, it would be very helpful to us moving forward with our mission. If you can help out in any way or would like to join the committee, please call Maria Rauch at the church office 864.331.3901. Thank you.
