Letter from Our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

Growing up as a kid in the 1980s, it was impossible not to learn about Africa. It was the era of Michael Jackson's We are the World and LiveAid benefit concerts. My mother always had a great fascination with Africa, and our house was decorated with pictures of tigers and lions and African art. I wanted to become a missionary to Africa. In point of fact, I've never even been there, and God had other plans, but the stories of missionary efforts on that great continent never fail to inspire me.

One of the greatest evangelizers of the 19th century was Charles Cardinal Lavigerie (1825-92). He had a heart for that continent, and burned with zeal to make it Christian. This intrepid man was an adventurer and a man of action. He was made a bishop very young, and offered the Archbishopric of Lyon, as Primate of France, he turned it down to become the Archbishop of Algiers. There he founded a missionary society known as the White Fathers, because they adopted the simple white dress of the Bedouin tribes they were sent to evangelize. Lavigerie set about forming missionary priests and sisters who would not identify with the French explorers and conquerors, but with the native people. The stories of the first decades of their work are filled with danger and deprivation, and many lost their lives. In fact, St Charles Lwanga, whose image is near the Quiet Room in the church, was one of the first converts of the White Fathers in Uganda. He and his companions were martyred for refusing to give in to the sexual advances of their king, thus compromising their virtue of purity.

The heroic witness of the White Fathers was to simply live among the people and teach the faith. Think about the fact that the White Fathers and other missionary communities have been ministering in that continent just about the same time the Diocese of Charleston has been in existence. Then, think about the fact that many of the territories evangelized by the White Fathers now have majority Catholics in the population, while in South Carolina, we are still only about 4%! In 1959, Uganda was 49% Catholic, while South Carolina was 1.3% Catholic. Today, Uganda is still 41% Catholic. The Diocese of Charleston was founded in 1820; the now Archdiocese of Kampala was founded as the Vicariate Apostolic of Nyanza in 1880.

We have a lot of work to do! The Lord has entrusted to us the conversion of every man, woman and child in Taylors to Christ. That is our mission field. It's amazing to think that I am doing more frontline missionary work here than I would be if I had gone to Africa! St Philip Neri was a Roman parish priest in the 16th century who dreamed of going off to the missions. He couldn't shake the idea, and he went to see St Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus, one of the greatest missionary orders ever. Neri wanted to leave the bustling metropolis of Rome to lose himself in India to preach the Gospel, and offered to join the new Jesuits. Loyola refused and said, "Father, Rome is your India. Stay here!"

It is a consolation to think that for me, Taylors is my India, my Africa. And it's yours too. We may not think of it as missionary territory, but it is. And, a fertile one at that! As a parish, our life is not about just creating a "safe space" for traditionally minded Catholics as an oasis of peace in the buckle of the Bible Belt. It's about bringing souls to Christ, and to full communion with the Church He founded. The White Fathers gave the ultimate sacrifice of many martyrs whose blood was the seed of the Church. The Lord may not be asking us for that kind of sacrifice, but are we training as martyrs, as missionaries for the love of God?

feast of the assumption

The Feast of the Assumption is Thursday, 15 August. It commemorates the death of Mary and her bodily assumption into Heaven, before her body could begin to decay—a foretaste of our own bodily resurrection at the end of time. Because it signifies the Blessed Virgin's passing into eternal life, it is the most important of all Marian feasts and a Holy Day of Obligation. The Mass times are as follows: 7a, 8.30a, 12p Latin and 7p.

On this day we have the Blessing of Herbs. If you would like to have your herbs blessed, please place them at the Our Lady Queen of Peace altar to be blessed.

beloved (marriage enrichment)

What if sacramental Marriage is more than a simple contract between two people, based on romance, mutual fulfillment and basic attraction? What if, created into the very design of humanity, God has placed a purposeful desire to unite a man and a woman into something mysterious, holy and eternal? In 12 sessions, Beloved explores the true meaning of Marriage and how to live it out together. Join us once a month, beginning Friday, 27 September, at 7p in Parish House. We will spend about 30 minutes watching a short video and having discussion as a group and then you as a couple will go off on a "date night" to discuss together what you just learned. To register and order a couple's workbook ($10), email angela.calabro@princeofpeacetaylors.org no later than 10 September.

act of spiritual communion

If you are unable to receive Holy Communion for whatever reason, make a Spiritual Communion by reciting the following:

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, as though You have already come. I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.

is God calling you to carmel?

Wanting to deepen your faith and prayer life? Drawn to Carmelite spirituality?
