Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

At almost every Mass at Prince of Peace we pray together:

Lord, send us priests.

Lord, send us holy priests.

Lord, send us many holy priests.

I first came across this prayer when I was living in Paris at my parish there, Saint -Eugene, which, like Prince of Peace, had a flourishing liturgical and spiritual life. I was amazed at the sheer number of vocations to the priesthood and religious life that the parish had produced, and it was not because of anything other than being authentically Catholic. You may not know it, but we have a number of young men and women who are considering a vocation to the priesthood and religious life here at Prince of Peace.

Father Matthew Gray, the Director of Vocations for the Diocese of Charleston, is scheduled to be with us this weekend as we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus/Purification of Mary, and has spent part of this week with our kids, encouraging them to consider a vocation to priesthood and religious life.

It is a very difficult time in the Church's history to set out on a life like this. It requires heroic virtue, courage and wisdom, but, as I see so many of our young people grow up here, I have no doubt many saintly vocations can come from our own ranks. Parents, don't pressure your kids into going off to the convent or a seminary, but do encourage a culture of vocation at home. Holy families will yield holy children; happy families will instill happiness in their children.

If you get a chance, please say an extra prayer for Fr Gray's important work to promote priests for South Carolina, and take a moment to greet him and let him know how you are praying for him. Somebody's got to take my place at this altar in your parish church someday. I hope to die with my boots on, like a good priest, but we need men to come in after me and keep this wonderful parish going. And to think that young men and women formed here at our parish can influence the future of our Church is really exciting!

Fr. Christopher J. Smith

Many of you have inquired about the process for making payments so we wanted to provide you this update:

1. If you made a pledge, you may have received a Pledge Reminder notification. This is not a bill; it is simply a reminder notice. Payments may be made on the schedule that best suits you. If you have any questions re-garding this reminder, you may call the Anne Durney at the Diocese at 843-261-0437 or adurney@charlestondiocese.org.
2. Parishioners who set up pledges that are not credit cards or direct debit payments will receive reminders with a pre-addressed return envelope at the schedule selected. Payments will be mailed to Catholic Community Foundation of South Carolina, Bicentennial Campaign Office, PO Box 31257, Charleston SC 29417.
3. If you provided information for automatic credit card payment or bank withdrawal, those payments are being processed on or around the 15th of the month according to the schedule you requested. You will not receive monthly pledge reminders or return envelopes.

yearly adoration sign up

St Faustina (of the Divine Mercy devotion) said that for every Holy Hour spent adoring the Most Blessed Sacrament, God will bestow a special grace to every man, woman and child on earth from God's goodness and love.

The Guild of St. Thomas Aquinas Adoration Ministry asks all to take the next few weeks to prayerfully consider adopting a weekly hour with the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. One may choose an hour of urgency or share an hour with another ador-er. There are options for those who are unable to commit weekly; please ask one of our Lead-ers. Questions are referred to Lisa at 864.508.7123. Our Lord can never be outdone in generosity. As He once promised St Margaret Mary Alcoque: "Those who adore The Sacred Heart of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament, I will write his name on My Heart--never to be erased!"

feast of paul miki and companions

6 Feb is the Feast of Paul Miki and Companions (the Japanese Martyrs). On the heels of a great conversion of the Japanese people by St. Francis Xavier, St. Paul Miki and his companions began their work of tending to the Catholic churches and converting the Japanese pagans. While at civil war the new ruler executed St. Paul Miki and his companions and burned down 130 Catholic Churches and banned all Christians from the country. This is a great day to order Japanese take-out (or make a simple hibachi style stir fry) and discuss the fortitude and courage of missionaries and martyrs and how they are still in existence today!

Thank you to both the parish & school for your tremendous support of Birthright Greenville across the month of January. Your donations of diapers, blankets, wipes, shampoos and more directly supports local women who chose life in the face of an unplanned pregnancy. Great work!

feast of st blaise

3 February is the Feast of St. Blaise. Made a bishop in the early fourth century, he chose to live in a humble cave instead of the bishops mansion. He was a physician and performed many miraculous healings. At his arrest a woman laid her child, who was choking on a fishbone, at his feet. The child survived but St. Blaise was still beheaded. He is known as the patron saint of choking and ailments of the throat. On this day, either at mass or at home by the head of the household a blessing of each persons throat with candles can be made saying, "Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." For dinner serve fish!

help needed

Needing food shouldn't require compromising well-being or dignity. That's what we love about Catholic Charities Greenville pantry, which is truly a mini-grocery store experience where clients can shop with wellness as a focus - stocking their grocery carts with meats, fruits, vegetables and grains.

Can you serve as a shopping buddy volunteer in their pantry (2300 Old Buncombe Rd, Greenville, SC 29609) on Tuesdays (anytime between 12-4) and/or Thursdays (anytime between 12-6)? The shopping buddy volunteers go around the pantry with a client to assist in selecting meats, fruits, vegetables, and grains. And, the shopping buddy helps the client to their car with food items.

If interested in being a shopping buddy (or helping with administrative tasks, data entry, sorting/stocking), schedule a tour and orientation (1-1.5 hours) with Gracie Ortiz, Catholic Charities Regional Coordinator for the Upstate, 864-331-2626 and gortiz@charlestandiocese.org. This orientation/tour helps folks discern what is the best fit for them.
