Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

How's your Lent going? This year, we are encouraging people to meditate on two words: simplify and unify.

Simplify: let's not multiply unnecessarily individual devotional practices and penances this year. Look at what you have and what you are doing, and how you are doing, and come up with a plan to simplify. If you haven't been reading St Francis de Sales' Introduction to the Devout Life, as a parish family we are all engaging this spiritual classic as a means of clearing out the excess and clinging to the substance of authentic spiritual practices. Less is more, when it comes to stuff, when it comes to food, when it comes to noise. Simplify, simplify, simplify.

Unify: we're asking that this year you make an extra special effort to live Lent by joining us for as many spiritual and educational events you can. No man is an island, and the whole reason parishes exist is to bring together the faithful so they can mutually support each other. Don't use the parish like a gas station to fill up with fuel and drive off into the sunset until you're empty again. Be intentional about introducing yourselves to others you see at Mass and parish events, forging holy friendships, and helping Prince of Peace be a united spiritual home for everyone. And if you have a relationship with someone that is divided, now is the time for reconciliation. Unify. And if you're still doing things that divide, like gossip or complaining or isolating yourself, knock it off. Lent is the time to unify our hearts with those of others and the very heart of God. Unify, unify, unify.

I am the last person to encourage people to chatter mindlessly in church. It is a sacred space and needs to stay that way. But, do you know the name of the people down the pew from you? Do you know their story? Are you aching to have a friend but you just are too afraid to put yourself out there, even at church? This Lent, be bold and make new friends at Prince of Peace. Stop doing the Judas shuffle and leaving right after Communion like a heathen, and actually engage the people around you in a healthy and respectful way after your thanksgiving after Mass, and come to events other than Mass.

I am continually amazed how parishioners at Prince of Peace who have grown to know, love and serve each other have formed a powerful support structure and a very real community. It's not a secret club you have to be invited it; it's your spiritual home. But for it to be truly that, you have to spend time here, making relationships with others. Be bold. Be brave. Put yourself out there. Respond to others who want to get to know you. We have some amazing people here in our parish; the more we know each other, the more we can love and serve one another, and the more others will know we are Christians by that love!

your catholic home

9 March is the Feast of St Frances of Rome who was born to wealthy parents. Frances found herself attracted to the religious life during her youth. But, her parents objected and a young nobleman was selected to be her husband. She was married for 40 years and the couple never had a disagreement. She went about her household duties promptly and prayerfully stating that "a married woman must leave God at the altar to find Him in her domestic cares." Frances founded a monastery to help the poor and sick while also providing for her family. Upon her husband's death she entered the Oblates community and became the Superior. Frances reminds us to always be in the presence of God, even in the midst of our daily work. To celebrate have your family participate in making a home cooked meal and clean out a much needed closet or space in your home.
