Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

This Lent we encouraged you to deep dive into the Roman character of our sacred liturgy by learning more about the Stational Churches where in ancient times the Pope would celebrate the liturgy during Lent. Those of you who bought the little book on the station churches have been learning so much about how each of the amazing churches gives all kinds of food for meditation for each day of Lent. Here are some things you may not know about stational churches:

1. There are stational churches outside of Lent, as well! There are some amazing connections with the readings and prayers assigned to the liturgy and the place where Roman tradition had the Pope celebrate that day's liturgy. If you have a Missal to follow along with the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite, those stational churches are often marked.
2. The pope still observes some of the stational churches. If you watch EWTN, you can see the Pope celebrate in some of these places!
3. Other local churches besides Rome also had stational churches where the Bishop would gather his flock for special liturgies. Paris, Milan and Lyon all had similar stational church sets.

On this Laetare Sunday, the stational church of Rome is Santa Croce in Gerusalemme. This church, dedicated to the Holy Cross, is a five minute walk from St John Lateran, the Pope's cathedral. This basilica was consecrated in 325 to house the relics of the Passion brought back to Rome by the Empress St Helena. You can visit a newer Chapel of the Relics, built in 1930, which contains the index finger of St Thomas, part of one of the nails from the Cross, two thorns from the Crown of Thorns, three small pieces of the True Cross, and, a more contested relic that some hold to be a forgery, the title from the Cross which proclaimed Jesus as King of the Jews. It is a tremendous gift that in the midst of Lent, on this day when we celebrate the approaching joy when Jerusalem was redeemed by the Cross, we can in spirit go with the Pope to visit the relics of that Cross.

Next Sunday, the Fifth Sunday of Lent, or Passion Sunday, there is a stirring ceremony at Vespers, when the relics are exposed on the altar of St Peter's, and the Veil of Veronica is brought out to bless the faithful. The true image of Our Lord's Holy Face during the most agonizing moments of His Passion is one of the most precious relics of Christendom. We may not all get to Rome to experience it (I have, and let me tell you, it sent chills down my spine as the veil was lifted in blessing over us all – a numinous event if I've ever seen one!), but we can all participate by meditating on these instruments of the Passion.

The gold candlesticks we have on the altar of sacrifice outside of Lent and Advent all have angels holding the instruments of the passion. A gentle reminder that the Mass is always the unbloody re-presentation of the one bloody sacrifice of Calvary.

Fr. Christopher Smith

what did the church do in previous times of plague?

What did the Church do in previous times of plague? A cross approved in 1575 by the fathers of the Council of Trent as protection against the plague; originally developed by St. Zacharias, Patriarch of Jerusalem in the early seventh century. Zacharias was held in captivity for many years by Chosroes, King of the Persians, who had also taken the True Cross from Jerusalem. Bishop and cross returned to the holy city together.

The text refers to the prayer that should accompany its appropriate use. It can be placed over a threshold or a door, or possibly used in other contexts.

+ O Cross of Christ, save me.

Z. May zeal for your house free me.

+ The Cross conquers; the Cross reigns; the Cross rules; by the sign of the Cross free me, O Lord, from this plague.

D. God, my God, drive this plague away from me, and from this place, and free me.

I. In your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit, my heart, and my body.

A. Before heaven and earth God was; and God is able to liberate me from this plague.

+ The Cross of Christ will expel the plague from this place and from my body.

B. It is good to wait for the help of God in silence, that he may drive away this plague from me.

I. I will incline my heart to performing your just deeds, and I will not be confounded, for I have called upon you.

Z. I had zeal on occasion of the wicked; seeing the peace of sinners, I have hoped in you.

+ The Cross of Christ puts demons to flight; corrupt air; and drives away the plague.

S. I am your Salvation, says the Lord; cry out to me, and I will hear you, and I will liberate you from this plague.

A. Abyss calls to abyss, and you have expelled demons by your voice; liberate me from this plague.

B. Blessed the man who hopes in the Lord, and does not look upon vanities, and false extravagances.

+ May the Cross of Christ, which was once the cause of scandal and indignity, and is now in glory and nobility, be for my salvation, and expel from this place the demon, and corrupt air, and plague from my body.

Z. May zeal for the honor of God convert me before I die, and in your name, save me from this plague.

+ May the sign of the Cross free the People of God, and those who trust in him, from the plague.

H. Will this foolish people return to the Lord? Make good on your vows, offering a sacrifice of praise and faith to him, because he is able to liberate this place and me, from this plague; for whoever trusts in him will not be confounded.

G. If I will not praise you, let my tongue stick to my throat and to my jaws; free those who hope in you; in you I trust; liberate me and this place, O God, from this plague, for your name has been invoked in prayer.

F. At your death, O Lord, darkness fell over the whole earth; my God, render the power of the devil tenuous and dim, for it is for this that you have come, O Son of the living God: so that you might destroy the works of the devil with your power, drive out from this place and from me, your servant, this plague; and may the corrupt air depart from me into the outer darkness.

+ Defend us, O Cross of Christ, and expel from this place the plague, and free your servant from this plague, you who are kind, and merciful, and of many mercies, and true.

B. Blessed is he who does not look upon vanities, and false extravagances; on the day of evil the Lord will free him; Lord, I have trusted in you; free me from this plague.

F. God has become my refuge; because I have trusted in you, free me from this plague.

R. Look upon me, O Lord my God, Adonai, from the holy seat of your Majesty, and have mercy on me, and because of your mercy, free me from this plague.

S. You are my Salvation: heal me, and I will be healed; save me, and I will be saved.

the devout life inspired homily series

Have you missed any of Fr Smith's homily series inspired by St Francis de Sales' The Devout Life? We've organized it together in one easy spot here!

thank you!

Fr Smith reminded children last week in his video message to them that in a crisis, you should always look for the helpers! Meet JR, Lisa, Lois & June. They're part of our dedicated team deep cleaning all the surfaces to create a safe environment for visitors of the Church.

prayer request

In your kindness, please pray for the repose of the soul of Louise Krug.

Eternal rest, grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

send us your photos

We're living thru history. Despite its many challenges, there's a lot of good happening. We saw Dads celebrating St Joseph's Feast Day with their sons and our Grand Knight spent his Sunday morning donating platelets under The Blood Connection's POP code 3APE. Our broadcasts and posts online have reached around 33,000 folks!
