From Our Pastor

An E xtraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

One of the most insightful journalists around today is Edward Pentin, who writes for the National Catholic Register. He has just completed a massive project which will one day be of great benefit to the entire Church. The fruit of this research is a book recently published called The Next Pope. In it, he identifies 19 of the 221 cardinals who are considered to be the most papabile, the fun Italian word that means “popeable.” After a brief explanation of how popes are elected, Pentin goes through the Nineteen on his list, one by one, and explores many of their statements and actions on all kinds of burning issues of the day.

Ordinarily I do not encourage faithful Catholics to waste their time burrowing into Vatican intrigue and Church politics. Being close to the boiler room is not good for those who can’t take the heat; sausage is never pleasant to see being made. The British author Evelyn Waugh once had a character in his novel Decline and Fall state, “Lay interest in ecclesiastical matters is often a prelude to insanity.” In my experience, lay faithful who get all wrapped up in the inside baseball of Roman Curial happenings and episcopal appointments often lose their faith.

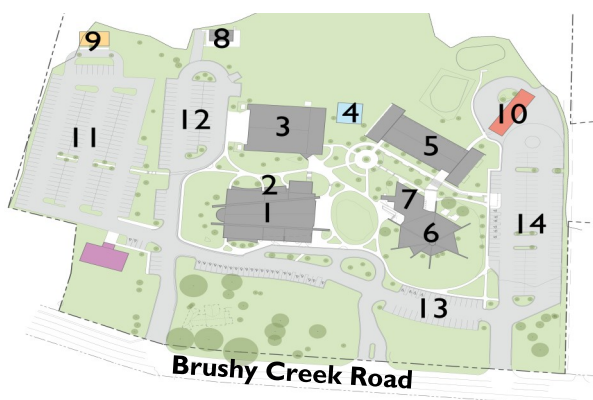

Recently I also finished watching a television show on the most famous family of Florence, the Medici. Lorenzo di Medici was the paragon of Renaissance humanist, a lover of the arts and patron of beauty. His wife, Clarisse, was a fervent Catholic who was scandalized at her beloved’s attempts to buy the papacy to poise the family for greater glory. The Dominican preacher Girolamo da Savonarola fired up the people of Florence to greater devotion, but he also informed them in blunt terms of the reality of the life of the Church and State around them. Lorenzo died a broken man, possibly reconciled to the Church by Savonarola, after his wife died, surely offering herself up in atonement for the sins of her husband and the ecclesiastics she grew to suspect. This great made wanted to change the world, and ended up far from God.

There is nothing new under the sun. Pentin’s book gives a powerful insight into the contemporary situation of the Church and the cardinals who are the Pope’s closest advisors. It’s not for the weak of heart, but it is also not tabloid journalism made of half-truths and conspiracy theories, of which the Catholic blogosphere is chock full. For those of you who have a penchant for these kind of things (and having lived in Rome for years, I can assure, I do not), it is important for you to know who is a reliable and independent source of information.

Either way, pray for the Pope, for the cardinal electors, for the Bishops and for your priests. The Holy Spirit is always moving the Church to greater reform, and the Devil is always trying to frustrate that attempt. Your prayers and sacrifices matter. You may never know it until you get to the pearly gates, but you may be surprised to learn how your love for Christ and His Church has made the communion of saints a more lovely place to dwell!

Fr. Christopher E. Smith

august food drive

In August, St Vincent de Paul is running a food drive! In the past, brown bags would be passed out and you would return them to the parish filled with requested items. For safety reasons, we will not pass out the bags in August. Instead, we ask that you bring non-perishable items and drop them off in the designated brown bin in the Narthex.

What's needed? Here's the list: non perishable food items such as vegetables, fruit, meat, cereal, pasta, pasta sauce, rice, peanut butter, jelly, toilet paper, paper towels, soap, baby diapers any size, wipes, ravioli.

here are the ways to continue giving to pop

- drop off your offertory at Mass
- drop off your offertory in our mailbox: at the doors to Parish House that face the school
- mail it to us: 1209 Brushy Creek Rd, Taylors South Carolina 29687
- donate online in our tithe.ly system - setup EFT, one-time donation or recurring donation. Manage your giving with ease by downloading the tithe.ly app to your phone.

If you normally give via WeShare, you can stick with it or switch! The parish incurs lower fees with Tithe.ly. Here's the WeShare link for managing your account.

Disinfectant spray is in the back of the chapel for each adorer to spray down what has been touched. And, adorers are encouraged to wear a mask. Contact Lisa Buss at adoration@princeofpeacetaylors.org or call 864.508.7123 with questions!

- Adorers are reminded to receive the code directly from Lisa Buss. Do not expect those inside the Chapel to interrupt their prayers to open/close the door. This is a safety risk for adorers.
- Hours in need of adorers:
  - 8a Sundays,
  - 12a, 3p & 5p Thursdays and
  - 11a & 1p Saturdays

act of spiritual communion

If you are unable to receive Holy Communion for whatever reason, make a Spiritual Communion by reciting the following:

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, as though You have already come. I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.

feasts of sts monica and augustine

27 & 28 August: Feasts of Saint Monica and Saint Augustine. The feast day of Saint Monica is celebrated the day before the feast of her son, Saint Augustine; a fitting combination of feast days. Saint Monica was a Christian mother who instructed her son in the faith. Her husband was a pagan and did not allow his son to be baptized. St. Monica is remembered for having a stressful life, between her ill-tempered husband and rebellious son. Because of her persistent prayer, sacrifice, patience and gentleness, St Monica's husband converted before he died. Her rebellious son Augustine also eventually converted. Augustine had abandoned his faith entirely as a young man and lived a life of heresy and hedonism. He enjoyed the pursuit of pleasure above all things. In his 30's, Augustine finally found his way back to God and was baptized by Saint Ambrose. He became a priest and then the Bishop of Hippo. He spent the rest of his life in service and study, writing more than one hundred works of theology, apologetics, and philosophy. He died of illness at the age of seventy-five and was venerated as a saint immediately. Augustine was recognized as a great Doctor of the Church in 1298. In his writings, Saint Augustine shared that through his rebellious lifestyle, he had been searching for the meaning of real love in all the wrong places. "You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in you." (St. Augustine, Confessions)

Some ways to celebrate at home:

- Saint Monica is known for her persistent prayers for her husband and son. Make (or purchase!) soft pretzels - their form represents folded hands in prayer! Recipe idea here!
- St. Monica is the patron saint of mothers: consider her feast day as a special mother's day. Do something nice for your mom today. If she is in heaven, offer prayers and sacrifices on her behalf.
- In honor of St. Augustine, consider adding some religious artwork to your home. Find ways to provide daily reminders of God's Presence within you. ("You were within me, but I was outside, and it was there that I searched for You. You were with me, but I was not with You." -St. Augustine)
- Pray in a special way for the conversion of sinners on the Feasts of Saint Monica and Augustine. Remember to pray especially for family and friends that have fallen away from the church.
- Memorize the following prayer by Saint Augustine and incorporate it into your daily prayer time:

Breathe in me O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy.

Act in me O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy.

Draw my heart O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy.

Strengthen me O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy.

Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy. Amen.

parish events

- Fr Smith highly encourages postponing the start of regular events until at least mid-September
- Every ministry who wishes to have an event must submit an email to Fr Smith & Phil Head (cc: Maria Rauch) the plan they have to clean and sanitize every space used by them before anyone goes home, including the names and contact numbers of the volunteers who will make this happen. That communication must be received before any single event is put on the calendar.
- Wearing masks and social distancing is encouraged at every event. If Fr Smith & Phil Head are not convinced this has been followed, we reserve the right to shut down an event even in the middle of it.
- Ministry events should be communicated 3 weeks prior to the event date. Those ministry events happening online (or for those wishing to have an event hosted online via Zoom by the parish) should contact Kylee Heap. We highly encourage online events to reach parishioners who are not yet returning to Mass.
- Guidelines are subject to change!
