Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

Last month the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith issued a document reminding people of the conditions under which a sacrament can be rendered invalid. They mentioned specifically, if a person were baptized with the formula, We baptize you, instead of I baptize you. When the document came out, I dismissed it with a cursory, “Who on earth would do something like that?” In the heady days of liturgical experimentation after Vatican II, there were calls to replace the first person singular pronoun with the first person plural, as if the individual community was doing the baptism through the minister. The Church has the right to change the formulas accompanying the sacraments, but never changed the baptismal formula in view of its apostolic origin.

That’s when Father Matthew Hood of the Archdiocese of Detroit decided to look at a video of his own baptism as a child, and was horrified to see captured on film a permanent deacon who used we instead of I. That abuse by that deacon meant that he was not only not baptized, but never received validly another sacrament either, since all of the other sacraments presume one is baptized. That meant that, not only was he not actually ordained to the priesthood, but every Mass he said was invalid: transubstantiation did not actually occur at any Mass he celebrated for two years. The poor young man was baptized, confirmed and ordained by the Archbishop immediately, and the Archdiocese is busy tracking down everyone who was invalidly baptized by the rogue deacon to baptize them.

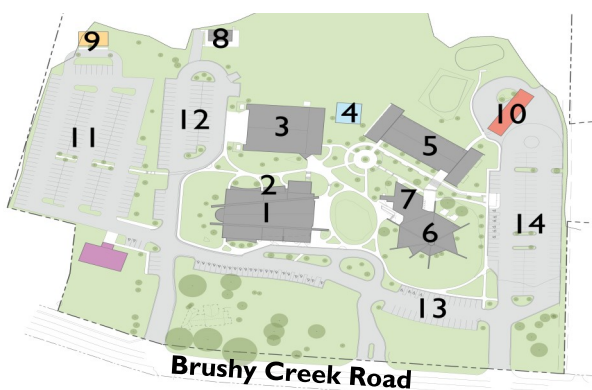

I was surprised to see many comments online criticizing the Archdiocese for trying to rectify this situation: “This is just more legalism, he was baptized in the eyes of God even if the deacon didn’t get it right. This is why people are leaving the Church.” Now it is true that when someone approaches a sacrament that is invalidly administered, since God is not bound by the sacraments, He can dispense to that soul the grace that corresponds to the sacrament. But it doesn’t mean that an invalidly administered sacrament is actually received. The sacraments are not magic; they require requisite form, matter and intention to actually take place. If a Wicca priestess waltzes into Prince of Peace and says, This is My Body, over a piece of bread, that doesn’t make it the Eucharist. If I stumble drunk into church and pour gin instead of water over a baby’s head, but say the right words, that’s not baptism. Words matter. Intentions matter. Matter matters.

It is the ultimate sin of clericalism to think that, just because we got hands laid on our head, that we have the right to change the matter, form and intention of the sacraments. The last few decades of the church have seen clericalism in its worst forms: the sexual and emotional abuse of children and vulnerable people and covering it up, and the sacramental and liturgical abuse of the Christian people by rogue clerics who follow their own fads rather than the Gospel lived in the communion of the Church. While those types of abuse are obviously not the same, no form of abuse should exist anywhere in the Church. It has got to stop.

To insist on sacramental validity is not legalism. Respect for the discipline of the Church and the norms of the Code of Canon Law and liturgical laws expressed in the books that govern the Church’s worship is not “the law that killeth the spirit.” These things protect the faithful from arbitrary eccentricities visited upon them by prideful clergy, and ensure the unity of the Church by means of a common vision lived in tangible ways.

fraternus & fidelis news

Fraternus & Fidelis are mentoring programs for 6th-12th graders—fraternus is for boys & fidelis is for girls. Fraternus has been so hugely successful that Fr Smith agreed to the launch of its sister program, Fidelis. Mentors form a brotherhood/sisterhood of virtue and invite the teens into it. The weekly meetups begin on Tuesday, 15 September:

- 6th-12th grade boys are invited to participate on Tuesdays from 7-8:45pm in the PAC. Questions? Contact Thomas at upstatefraternus@gmail.com
- 6th-12th grade ladies are invited to participate on Tuesdays from 7-8:45p in Parish House. Questions? Contact Kelly at upstatefidelis@gmail.com

perpetual eucharistic adoration

"A Holy Hour of adoration helps bring everlasting peace to your soul and in your family."

- St. (Mother) Teresa of Calcutta

Please consider adopting an hour or become a substitute. For the safety of our adorers, we're limiting the volume of adorers at one time to 4 people, unless otherwise pre-arranged with Lisa Buss. Disinfectant spray is in the back of the chapel for each adorer to spray down what has been touched. And, adorers are encouraged to wear a mask. Contact Lisa Buss at adoration@princeofpeacetaylors.org or call 864.508.7123 with questions!

- Adorers are reminded to receive the code directly from Lisa Buss. Do not expect those inside the Chapel to interrupt their prayers to open/close the door. This is a safety risk for adorers.
- Hours in need of adorers:
 - 2a, 8a & 10a Sundays,
 - 12a, 3p & 5p Thursdays and
 - 11a, 1p & 4p Saturdays

act of spiritual communion

If you are unable to receive Holy Communion for whatever reason, make a Spiritual Communion by reciting the following:

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, as though You have already come. I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.

feast of the nativity of the blessed virgin mary

8 September: Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This feast day commemorates the birth day of Mary. There are only three birthdays on the liturgical calendar: Mary, Jesus, and John the Baptist. Usually, it is the custom to celebrate the feast day of a saint on the date of their death as that marks their “birth” into everlasting life. Mary, however, entered the world sinless (known as the “Immaculate Conception”). Mary is called the firstborn of the redeemed and her nativity is “the hope of the entire world and the dawn of salvation” (Pope Paul VI, Mari- alis Cultus). Mary’s birth is not recorded in scripture but is found in the Protevangelium of James, an apocryphal writing from the 2nd century. The liturgical celebration of this feast has a joyous theme of light: the world that had been shadowed in the darkness of sin sees a glimmer of light with the arrival of Mary. Through Mary comes Christ, the Light of the World. Mary has a pivotal role in salvation history and her nativity is cause for joyful celebration. Today and every day, let us call upon the Blessed Mother as “Cause of our joy”, one of the beautiful titles in her litany.

“Thy birth, O Virgin Mother of God, heralded joy to all the world. For from thou hast risen the Sun of justice, Christ our God. Destroying the curse, He gave blessing; and damning death, He bestowed on us life everlasting. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.” (from The Divine Office - Matins (Morning Prayer))

a new statue being installed and blessed at the parish school on 8 September as a gift from the Catholic Identity Committee

Some ways to celebrate at home:

- Have a birthday party for Mary! Birthdays don't need special explanations for children. Let them decorate the house with leftover party supplies in honor of their heavenly mother. Blue is an especially fitting color for this day (it is symbolic of Mary's blue mantle).
- Ask children to think of a birthday “gift” they can give to Mary: a prayer; an act of mercy; a small sacrifice; a virtue to work on; a handful of wildflowers to adorn a Marian statue; etc.
- Make a blue and white cupcake rosary (a “rosary” made out of cupcakes, mini cupcakes, or cookies. Idea here). Sing “happy birthday” to Mary before enjoying this special dessert! A simple white cake symbolizing Mary’s purity is also perfect for this feast day.
- Eat blueberries today: blueberry muffins or pancakes, blueberry pie or simply fresh blueberries.
- Consider purchasing a Marian statue for your home. Creating a Marian garden in your yard is another beautiful way to honor Our Lady.
- Learn a Marian hymn. Ideas: Ave Maria, Salve Regina, Immaculate Mary and Hail, Holy Queen.
- Pray a rosary – that’s the best way to say “happy birthday” to your heavenly mother!

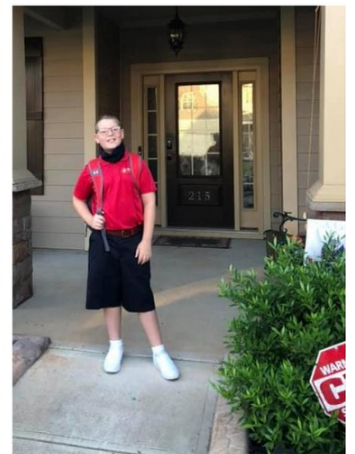

parish events

- Every ministry who wishes to have an event must submit an email to Fr Smith & Phil Head (cc: Maria Rauch) the plan they have to clean and sanitize every space used by them before anyone goes home, including the names and contact numbers of the volunteers who will make this happen. That communication must be received before any single event is put on the calendar.
- Ministry events should be communicated 3 weeks prior to the event date. Those ministry events happening online (or for those wishing to have an event hosted online via Zoom by the parish) should contact Kylee Heap. We highly encourage online events to reach parishioners who are not yet returning to Mass.
