From Our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

Verbal engineering always precedes social engineering. When you want people to adopt on a large scale something so heinous that the natural law itself forbids it, you have to manipulate language so it doesn't seem all that bad. In the early part of the last century, Catholic author GK Chesterton noted the phenomenon as contraception became the rage: “They insist on talking about Birth Control when they mean less birth and no control . . . Birth Control is a name given to a succession of different expedients by which it is possible to filch the pleasure belonging to a natural process while violently and unnaturally thwarting the process itself.” We're all too familiar with the insidious language that abortion advocates use: fetus, clump of cells, pro-choice. They're all euphemisms that mask the terrible reality of murder of the innocent.

Dr William Brennan, Professor of Social Work at St Louis University, wrote in a fascinating book, Dehumanizing the Vulnerable: When Word Games Take Lives, on the rhetoric used at various times to justify oppression of seven different groups of human beings. Have a look at the chart at <https://www.issues4life.org/pdfs/languageofoppression.pdf> to see a bone-chilling analysis of how human beings were described originally as “deficient” and eventually as “non-persons.”

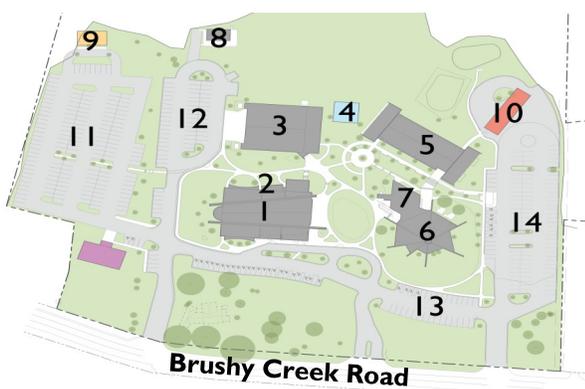

One of the most fascinating, and possible deadly, verbal engineering projects aimed at social engineering is unfolding right now before our very eyes. Antifa describes a movement of people that describe themselves as “anti-fascist.” At first glance, this seems like something we can all get behind. After all, the Catholic Church specifically condemned fascism under Pius XI, and all forms of racist xenophobia are foreign to Christian witness. Yet, some who have hitched themselves to this bandwagon are identifying Catholicism with what they hate, which is a regrettable deflection revealing a more sinister agenda.

The French Revolution. The Russian Revolution. China. The Spanish Civil War. The Rwandan Genocide. The Armenian Genocide. They're all bloody conflicts that took millions of lives that erupted after those with an agenda for social engineering got enough people to suppress their natural human disgust at harming another person, after a relentless campaign of verbal engineering.

As kids we used to say, “Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words will never hurt me,” to playground bullies who taunted us. As adults, we realize that bullying comes in many forms, and can be as quiet and unassuming as making words, and the realities they signify, change meaning. The Catholic intellectual tradition prizes the study of history, rhetoric and logic. Why? So you don't get duped by propaganda that kills. Catholic schools and religious education programs are on the front lines of the true resistance, which is why they must be supported. And why we must all be life-long learners. You may not be able to survive with your body intact when evil has its day, but you will preserve your soul and your dignity intact. That is the source of tremendous strength on our part, and the revolutionaries who want to destroy us are terrified of that strength.

Fr. Christopher E. Smith

august food drive

In August, St Vincent de Paul is running a food drive! In the past, brown bags would be passed out and you would return them to the parish filled with requested items. For safety reasons, we will not pass out the bags in August. Instead, we ask that you bring non-perishable items and drop them off in the designated brown bin in the Narthex.

What's needed? Here's the list: non perishable food items such as vegetables, fruit, meat, cereal, pasta, pasta sauce, rice, peanut butter, jelly, toilet paper, paper towels, soap, baby diapers any size, wipes, ravioli.

here are the ways to continue giving to pop

- drop off your offertory at Mass
- drop off your offertory in our mailbox: at the doors to Parish House that face the school
- mail it to us: 1209 Brushy Creek Rd, Taylors South Carolina 29687
- donate online in our tithe.ly system - setup EFT, one-time donation or recurring donation. Manage your giving with ease by downloading the tithe.ly app to your phone.

If you normally give via WeShare, you can stick with it or switch! The parish incurs lower fees with Tithe.ly. Here's the WeShare link for managing your account.

Contact Lisa Buss at adoration@princeofpeacetaylors.org or call 864.508.7123 with questions!

- Adorers are reminded to receive the code directly from Lisa Buss. Do not expect those inside the Chapel to interrupt their prayers to open/close the door. This is a safety risk for adorers.

 - 11p Tuesdays,
 - 12a, 3p & 5p Thursdays and

act of spiritual communion

If you are unable to receive Holy Communion for whatever reason, make a Spiritual Communion by reciting the following:

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, as though You have already come. I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.

feast of saint lawrence of rome

10 August: Feast of Saint Lawrence of Rome. Saint Lawrence was the youngest of seven deacons who served the Church during the third century. Under the direction of Pope Sixtus II, Lawrence held a position of great trust, caring for the material goods of the Church and distributing its alms among the poor. During the persecution of Christians by Emperor Valerian, Pope Sixtus II was executed and Lawrence was ordered by the authorities to surrender the treasures of the Church. He asked for three days' time to gather them. Then, Lawrence distributed the Church's treasures among the poor. He asked them to meet outside the home of the prefect on the third day. When the prefect came out expecting gold and jewels, instead he found a throng of the poor, sick and crippled. Lawrence announced, "Here are the treasures of the Church!" The prefect was so angry that he had Lawrence tortured, scourged, and then placed upon a glowing gridiron to be slowly roasted to death. While he was being roasted, Lawrence joked: "Now you may turn me over, I'm done on this side!" Shortly after he had been turned, St. Lawrence passed into eternal glory. Before he died he offered his life for the conversion of Rome. Saint Lawrence is venerated as one of the patrons of Rome, along with Sts. Peter and Paul. There was erected over his grave a church that is one of the seven major basilicas of Rome (St. Lawrence Outside the Walls). St. Lawrence is the patron saint of cooks, comedians, deacons, and the poor.

Some ways to celebrate at home:

- St. Lawrence was a deacon. The word deacon comes from the Greek word "diakonia" which means service. Deacons of the early Church often helped widows, orphans, the poor and the elderly. Try to do something nice today for someone who needs you. You could also call or visit an elderly or suffering member of your family or parish.
- In honor of this saint who loved the poor, send a check or make a food donation to the St. Vincent de Paul August Food Drive (non-perishable food and other items listed on pg 6 can be deposited in the brown bin located in the Narthex)
- Pray for the poor and suffering in our world; teach children about almsgiving to those in need.
- Because he is the patron saint of grill cooks, enjoy a cookout tonight or roast marshmallows over an open fire. To remember Saint Lawrence's heroically good sense of humor, tell jokes around the dinner or breakfast table. Saint Lawrence, pray for us!

"O God, giver of that ardor of love for you by which Saint Lawrence was outstandingly faithful in service and glorious in martyrdom, grant that we may love what he loved and put into practice what he taught. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever."

parish events

- Fr Smith highly encourages postponing the start of regular events until at least mid-September
- Every ministry who wishes to have an event must submit an email to Fr Smith & Phil Head (cc: Maria Rauch) the plan they have to clean and sanitize every space used by them before anyone goes home, including the names and contact numbers of the volunteers who will make this happen. That communication must be received before any single event is put on the calendar.
- Wearing masks and social distancing is encouraged at every event. If Fr Smith & Phil Head are not convinced this has been followed, we reserve the right to shut down an event even in the middle of it.
- Ministry events should be communicated 3 weeks prior to the event date. Those ministry events happening online (or for those wishing to have an event hosted online via Zoom by the parish) should contact Kylee Heap. We highly encourage online events to reach parishioners who are not yet returning to Mass.
- Guidelines are subject to change!

relics at pop

Did you know that in addition to Prince of Peace Catholic Church having Shrines with relics of St Josemaría Escrivá & Blessed Karl of Austria, our altar contains relics of St Pius X, St Callistus I, St Linus & St Elizabeth Ann Seaton? And, Fr Smith has a favorite ciborium engraved with "Pope Pius X" (Pius X is the pope who lowered age for First Communion).

brown scapular enrollment

At our First Holy Communion Rehearsal, Fr Smith enrolled all of the children in the Brown Scapular of the Carmelites (a sacramental)! This scapular is a sign of devotion to Mary, under her title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. It is worn as both a sign of belonging to Mary and pledge of her maternal protection in this life and the next. It is also a sign of three entwined elements: 1) belonging to the Carmelite family, 2) consecration to and trust in Mary, and 3) an incentive to imitate Our Lady's virtues, especially her humility, chastity, and prayerfulness.

"O Beautiful Flower of Carmel, most fruitful vine, splendor of heaven, holy and singular, who brought forth the Son of God, still ever remaining a pure virgin, assist us in our necessity. O Star of the Sea, help and protect us. Show us that you are our Mother. Amen."

Each month, we feed about 100 homeless being served at the Triune Mercy Center!
