Letter from our Pastor

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

For the past few weeks I have been mentioning some of the great religious orders whose spirituality shaped my life as both a layman and as a priest. There are a few more that I can't forget. When I was became a Catholic, I chose St Dominic as my confirmation patron. I was intrigued by the fact that, as the Albigensian heresy ravaged Spain and France, this scholarly canon was given the unusual privilege by his bishop to preach and move around unencumbered by the stricter rules of the cloister. His Order of Preachers has gone all over the world to preach sacred truth. I loved how St Dominic once spent all night with a young Albigensian man answering his questions and challenging his false understanding of Catholicism. Dominic was a man who loved books, but when the plague was ravaging where he was living, he sold all of his books so he could use the money to personally attend to the needs of the sick poor. His example caused me to explore a Dominican vocation, but that was not in the cards!

The Oratorians are not a religious order, as they are diocesan priests who live in communities under the charism of their founder, St Philip Neri. Neri wanted to be a foreign missionary in India with the Jesuits, until St Ignatius told him to stay in Rome as a parish priest and much sought out confessor. Oratorian houses are often centers of high culture and learning. John Henry Newman gathered his spiritual sons to found the Oratory in England, which is where I discovered them. To this day, the London Oratory has the most beautiful liturgy in Christendom, where the Roman rite and its music are carried out in the most exquisite fashion, all in the fashionable district of Kensington, which was where the poor Irish lived when they got started.

All of these religious orders imparted in some way or another something of their spirit to me, and through me, to the parishes I am blessed to serve. A truly Catholic spirit is open to all that is true, good and beautiful. Prince of Peace may be an extraordinary parish for ordinary people, but it also reflects a number of beautiful gifts from the religious orders. The liturgical splendor of the Oratory, the love of theological study of the Dominicans, the contemplative spirit of the Carmelites, the clerical spirituality of the Norbertines, and the love for work of the Benedictines are all apart of our mix. God be praised for raising up so many different saints in so many different times and places to do His will and teach us so much!"

In Christ,

Fr. Christopher E. Smith

End of General Dispensation

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

end of general dispensation, effective at 4p on 5 june

The general obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation (including the anticipatory Mass at 4p or later on the previous day) is to be reinstated in the Diocese of Charleston effective June 5, the Feast of Corpus Christi. Read the Bishop's Letter or watch his video!

Some dispensations continue, including for these 8 reasons:

1. You are ill or your health condition would be significantly compromised if you were to contract a communicable illness (i.e., you have underlying conditions or are in a high-risk category). Please use the dispensation and do not attend Mass.
2. You exhibit flu-like symptoms. Please use the dispensation and do not attend Mass.
3. You have good reason to think you might be asymptomatic of a contagious illness (e.g., you were in recent contact with someone who tested positive for a contagious illness such as COVID or influenza). Please use the dispensation and do not attend Mass.
4. You care for the sick, homebound, or infirmed.
5. You are pregnant.
6. Those 65 years of age or older (per the CDC's recommendation of high-risk individuals).
7. You cannot attend Mass through no fault of your own (e.g., no Mass is offered, you are infirmed, or, while wanting to go, you are prevented for some reason you cannot control (e.g., your ride did not show up, the church was at capacity).
8. If you have significant fear or anxiety of becoming ill by being at Mass.

Those within all categories outlined above must still observe the Lord's Day and are encouraged to spend time in prayer on Sunday, meditating on the Lord's passion, death and resurrection; an excellent way to do this is through participating in a broadcast of the Sunday Mass. POP will continue to livestream Sunday Mass at 10a and 12n along with special livestreams announced in the bulletin calendar.

All norms are to be reinstated in the Church with the exception of sharing the Sign of Peace, which was already optional, and receiving the chalice.

With the end of the general dispensation, we will cancel the 9.15a Liturgy of the Word (the last one will be 30 May). For those with need for a fully masked and socially distanced setting, the 10a livestream of Mass in the PAC with distribution of Holy Communion will be offered beginning 6 June.

Social events will resume with the end of the dispensation following current CDC guidelines.

In the words of the Bishop, please continue to pray for priests who have worked diligently across the pandemic to serve the sick, dying, grieving, and everyone else of good will.

Celebrating the Liturgical Life of the Church

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

1 June: Feast of Saint Justin. Justin is one of the most important Christian writers of the early Church. Born in the year 100 in the Palestinian province of Samaria, Justin was the son of pagan Greeks who provided him with an excellent education. Justin was interested in philosophy and looked for truth in various schools of thought. He became frustrated with philosophers' intellectual conceits, limitations, and indifference to God. After years of study, Justin had a life-changing encounter with an old man who urged him to study the Jewish prophets, who had spoken by God's inspiration and predicted the coming of Christ and foundation of His Church. "Above all things, pray that the gates of life may be opened to you," the man told Justin, "for these are not things to be discerned, unless God and Christ grant to a man the knowledge of them." Justin studied Christianity and was baptized at age 30. From then on, he studied Holy Scripture day and night, his soul filled with divine fire. As a Christian, he wrote many books explaining and propagating the Christian faith. Among the most famous are his two Apologies or Defenses of the Faith, which argued against the claims of Jews, pagans, and non-Christian philosophers. Several of his works were written to Roman officials, to refute lies about the Church and to end persecution of Christians. Justin's writings give explicit descriptions of the early Church's beliefs and modes of worship. In modern times, scholars note that Justin's descriptions correspond to the traditions of the Church on every essential point. Justin describes the Sunday liturgy as a sacrifice, speaks of the Eucharist as the true body and blood of Christ (stating only baptized persons free of serious sin may receive it), and describes celibacy as a sacred calling. His first defense of the faith, written around 150, convinced the emperor to regard the Church with tolerance. In 167, persecution began again under Emperor Marcus Aurelius. Justin was seized and brought before the prefect of Rome. An eyewitness tells how Justin the philosopher became known as "St. Justin Martyr." The prefect stated how Justin might save his life: "Obey the gods, and comply with the edicts of the emperors." Justin responded: "No one can be justly blamed or condemned for obeying the commands of our Savior Jesus Christ." Rusticus demanded, "Hear me, you who are noted for your eloquence... If I cause you to be scourged from head to foot, do you think you shall go to heaven?" Justin replied, "If I suffer what you mention, I hope to receive the reward which those have already received, who have obeyed the precepts of Jesus Christ. There is nothing which we more earnestly desire, than to endure torments for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ... We are Christians, and will never sacrifice to idols." Justin was scourged and beheaded along with six other believers. St. Justin Martyr has been regarded as a saint since the earliest centuries of the Church. He is the patron of apologists, lecturers, orators, philosophers.

Ideas for celebrating this feast at home:

- St. Justin was a prolific writer for the early church. Read his writings here. Read more about St. Justin's life and his martyrdom.
- Greek food ideas for Justin's feast: Greek salads, pita with hummus and tzatziki, olives, grilled meat or fish (or grilled kabobs), gyros, Spanakopita... Click here for recipe ideas. Don't forget to incorporate the martyrs' liturgical color of red on your table (candles, tablecloths, etc)
- Justin had a great love of Holy Scripture and is said to have had it in his hands day and night. Use his feast to rekindle your love of Scripture. Try reading just a little every day. Read passages out loud to your children.
- An apologist is not someone who apologizes for their faith, but rather someone who explains and defends the Faith. We are exhorted in 1 Peter 3:15 to "Always be prepared to make a defense to anyone who calls you to account for the hope that is in you." May Saint Justin, brave apologist, inspire us to defend and learn more about our Catholic Faith each and every day.

update on nativity

The first round of nativity pieces (the Holy Family, Camel and Shepherd) have been ordered. Monies for the Holy Spirit, kneeling lamb and donkey are almost fundraised! Thank you for your generosity and support of the POP Up Catholic Store. Now, an additional $18,000 in crating and shipping is needed to get these items delivered.

We continue to fundraise for the ox, angel, and all 3 wisemen. If there are groups that would like to get together and donate for a particular piece or if your work matches donations, that is a great way to help us achieve our goals.
