From Deacon Michael Thompson

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

When one begins their journey of discovery into what God wants of them, they will quickly and frequently discover that God really only asks two things of us: 1) Love Him with all your heart, your soul, your mind, and your strength, and 2) Love your neighbor as yourself. In 1 John, chapter 4, it says, "If anyone says, 'I love God,' but hates his brother, he is a liar." So one cannot love God without first loving His brother. How can we do one thing that allows us to love both God and our neighbors at the same time? The Answer... serve on or participate in a ministry.

Here at Prince of Peace we have many ministries to choose from. For me personally, I started out in the ministry of coaching basketball. Some may say "You call playing basketball a ministry!" At first glance, that may seem like a fair assessment. But through 14 years of coaching, I was able to learn a lot, but also teach quite a bit about who Jesus is and how to be like him. I saw children come to look out for each other and make sure everyone scored a basket. I saw teenage boys that, before the season, did not know how to pray, say some really beautiful prayers in front of the whole team by the end of the season.

Another ministry is the Men's Bible Study. It is said, You can't love who you don't know. Here I was able to meet and get to know some of the other men in our parish. Together, we have come to know Jesus and learn about who His Apostles were.

Then came the ministries of service. If you really want to feel the joy of God using you for His plan, join the ministry for the sick and homebound. Once you start bringing the True Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament to those who have a deep love, appreciation, and understanding of what they are receiving, you will feel God's love transfer through you to them. This reunion of Jesus in the form of Holy Eucharist with those who cannot attend Mass is such a sight to behold. Additionally, your relationship with God will change forever. And finally, you will meet some great people with great stories to share.

What is Mass without Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers (or EMs). These two ministries allow Laypersons to participate in the celebration of the Most Holy Mass. Were you aware that at Mass, the Church Militant, that's us here on Earth, is joined with the Church Triumphant, that is those that have made it into Heaven, and all the Heavenly Hosts? When you serve as a Lector or an EM, you are an integral part this great celebration. These are just a few of the ministries available at Prince of Peace. Find one that interests you and join in. It will help you grow your faith, love God, and love you neighbors.

In Christ,

Deacon Michael Thompson

She guides us through what she coined "The Interior Castle," where Christ abides in the center of our being. ### COMPANIONS IN SHIPWRECK

Good relationships are a vital part of human well-being. In fact, studies show that those with the healthiest relationships live the longest! But where can we see these friendships lived out? Look no further than the life of famed author J.R.R. Tolkien. The relationships he exhibited are a wonderful example for all of us to follow, especially with those we may disagree with. As Tolkien described marriage, it's all about being "companions in shipwreck."

This week we celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration, the mountaintop manifestation of Christ's glory that we read about in the Gospel. ### LUMINOUS MYSTERIES

The Transfiguration is part of the Luminous Mysteries, which were introduced to the Church in 2002 by St. John Paul II. These mysteries recall events that demonstrate the light of Christ during his public ministry. On this feast day, let us ponder this miraculous episode of Jesus' life by praying along with this recording of the Rosary.

Celebrating the Liturgical Life of the Church

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

6 August: Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. The Transfiguration is one of the major events in the earthly life of Jesus. The gospels tell the story of Jesus bringing Saint Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, Sts. James and John, up to the top of a high mountain to pray (tradition holds that it was Mount Tabor). This would have been about a year before Our Lord's passion. While he was praying, Jesus' appearance changed and his clothing became dazzling white: "His face shone like the sun, and his garments became white as light" (Mt 17:2). Next, Moses and Elijah appeared in glory and spoke with Jesus of things that were to come. The disciples were amazed and overwhelmed. Unsure what to do, St. Peter offered to put up tents for Jesus and his friends. Although they had been with Jesus for three years, the disciples still did not really understand who He was. Then, a cloud overshadowed them. They became frightened and heard a voice from Heaven saying: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." (Mt 17:5). After Moses and Elijah disappeared, Jesus instructed the disciples not to tell anyone about this "until the Son of man has been raised from the dead" (Mt 17:9). This event, called the Transfiguration, is significant in the Christian faith. Saint Thomas Aquinas called it "the greatest miracle" because it revealed the divinity of Christ before his passion and death. In the Transfiguration, Christ enjoyed for a short while that glorified state which was to be permanently His after the Resurrection. The splendor of His inward Divinity and of the Beatific Vision of His soul overflowed on His body, and permeated His garments so that Christ stood before Peter, James, and John in a snow-white brightness. This feast day became widespread in the West in the 11th century and was introduced into the Roman calendar in 1457 to commemorate the victory over Islam in Belgrade. Before that, the Transfiguration of the Lord was celebrated in the Syrian, Byzantine, and Coptic rites. The Transfiguration foretells the glory of the Lord as God, and His Ascension into heaven. It anticipates the glory of heaven, where we shall see God face to face, in all of His dazzling glory.

Ideas for celebrating this feast day at home:

- Pray a decade of the Luminous mysteries together as a family—the Transfiguration, of course!
- In the Scriptures, mountains are often portrayed as sacred places where humans meet God. (Think of Moses on Mt. Sinai and Elijah on Mt. Horeb.) If you can, take a mountain hike today and spend some time in quiet prayer and reflection.
- Celebrate this feast day with all things WHITE! Wear white clothing; set the dinner table with a white tablecloth and white candles; cook and eat lots of white foods to recall how Jesus' face "shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light" (Mt. 17:2).
- Ideas: egg white omelets and biscuits for breakfast; fettuccine alfredo or white fish with mashed potatoes or white rice for dinner. Dessert could be meringue cookies; Mexican wedding cakes; or angel food cake with vanilla ice cream or homemade whipped cream. (Heavy cream is 'transformed' when you whip it up with a bit of sugar. This is a fun hands-on activity to do with children to bring to mind the Transfiguration!) OR, simply 'transform' leftover food into a new dinner to celebrate this transformative feast day.
- With tradition holding that the Pope presses ripe grapes into the chalice at Mass or uses new wine on this feast, don't forget to enjoy a bottle of sparkling grape juice or red wine at supper tonight! (The symbolism here is the transformation: fruit develops from bud, to flower, to ripened fruit which is a natural transfiguration. Then, the grapes continue to be transformed from fruit, to juice, to wine, and then sacramentally, to the Blood of Christ received in the Eucharist.)
- View some paintings of the Transfiguration here.
- Here are some Transfiguration worksheets for kids to enjoy: Transfiguration maze, Transfiguration word search and word jumble, Transfiguration coloring pages
