From Maria Barontini

An Extraordinary Parish for Ordinary People

Dear Friends in Christ,

Parents are the primary educators and influencers of their children in their Catholic Faith however, your parish is here to assist in that education. It's that time of year to register your children for Religious Education at our parish. Religious Education is available for registered parishioners' children K5-8th grade. If you chose to homeschool your child(ren) and are teaching religion at home, please still fill out a registration form and turn it into me. This serves as a record for sacramental preparation. In the Diocese of Charleston two years of preparation are required for First Holy Communion and Confirmation. That traditionally means students should be registered for 1st, 2nd, 7th, and 8th grade Religious Education at a bare minimum. However, it is best to participate in classes every single year starting in K5. Let's pretend your child only participated up until 2nd grade and then disappeared from our program during 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th grade. Your child then reappears in the 7th grade with only the knowledge of a second grader, missing out on in-depth study of the Ten Commandments, the Sacraments, general Bible knowledge, the Mass, and so much more. It would be like dropping out of math in the 2nd grade and expecting your child to have the building blocks of knowledge to succeed in algebra. Please, do not be a disappearing family after First Holy Communion. 2021-2022 Religious Education sessions begin on 22 August at 8:50a. Additional instructions will be sent in August, once your child is registered for Religious Education.

Registration forms for First Holy Communion and Confirmation will be available in mid-August. Please reach out to me, via e-mail if your child is homeschooled or at another local Catholic school besides POPCS. All RE and POPCS students will receive their forms in early September. We will have a MANDATORY parent meeting on Thursday 16 September in the Parish House. First Holy Communion parents will meet at 6p and Confirmation parents will meet at 7:30p. One parent per child is required to be in attendance unless arrangements for an individual meeting are made with me. Please bring a copy of your child's baptismal certificate, the completed registration form, and fee to the meeting. All fees for sacraments go towards the purchase of curriculum, retreat costs, and reception costs. The amount collected each year rarely covers the cost associated with First Holy Communion or Confirmation and the parish makes up the difference. If ANY family is unable to pay a fee, please reach out to me and I will work something out with each individual family. First Holy Communion 2022 is scheduled for April 30 at the 5p Mass. Please note the change in time from previous years. Confirmation is scheduled by the Bishop's office and we do not have our date for Confirmation 2022.

first corinthians bible study

The conflicts of the early Christians in Corinth are in many ways similar to our struggles today as Christians. They, too, witnessed division, scandal, immorality, persecution and other trials. In First Corinthians: The Church and the Christian Community, an eleven-part Bible study, learn how St. Paul addressed these struggles by introducing the Corinthians to God's greatest gift–the Eucharist.

Prince of Peace will begin the Bible study First Corinthians: The Church and the Christian Community on 7 September at 10a in Croghan Hall. Participants will meet every week for 11 to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship.

Materials cost $25.00, and scholarships are available. Please register in advance to ensure we order enough!

Questions? Contact Michael at 864.331.3902 or michael.sandifer@princeofpeacetaylors.org.

marriage & family series

Prince of Peace is excited to offer a new series of Adult Faith Formation lectures on Marriage and Family Life. Beginning at 7p, on 1 September in the PAC classroom, our speakers will cover a broad range of topics which explore the Church's wisdom for spouses, parents, and single people alike. Everyone 18 and over is welcome to attend one or all 7 lectures. Because of the nature of this content, nursing infants are welcome, but please no children. No recording will be permitted.

Here are the first 4 topics in the series:

- 1 September - Husbands and Fatherhood: this lecture explores men in their role as husband and father. Topics will include: headship of the family, male vs. female in leadership, proper dominance, and more.
- 15 September - Wives and Motherhood: the lecture explores the feminine genius within the family. Topics include: maternity and identity, submission to authority, work/life balance, and more.
- 29 September - Children and Parenthood: this lecture will discuss children, their role in the family, parenting techniques, obedience, siblings & their rivalries, and more.
- 13 October - Male and Female He Created Them: following on the parenting lecture, this lecture specifically focuses on male vs. female. Topics will include: sex & gender, raising boys to be men, raising girls to be women, and more.

Questions? Contact Michael at 864.331.3902 or michael.sandifer@princeofpeacetaylors.org.

ROMAN CATHOLIC
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

August 5, 2021

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I write to you concerning the continuing spread of the COVID-19 virus in South Carolina. According to the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), the delta variant is contracted more easily and rapidly than other variants. The number of cases is increasing and leading to more hospitalizations and potentially more deaths. It is placing a strain on healthcare resources.

I have written to your pastors to recommend that masks be worn during Masses, and that we take Communion in the hand, so that we are able to continue worshipping together. Also, I strongly recommend that everyone who is eligible get vaccinated.

The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith issued guidance on COVID-19 vaccines determining that it is morally licit, that is, lawful and not forbidden, for Catholics to be vaccinated against the virus.

Please continue to respect local ordinances and directives from the CDC and South Carolina government officials, and take precautions as much as possible so that we may each do our part to end this terrible disease.

I know that these are difficult times, and so I continue to pray for you and your families.

In the Lord's Peace,

20 August: Feast of Saint Bernard of Clairvaux. Born in 1090, Bernard spent his early years near Dijon, France. His family was of Burgundian landowning aristocracy; he had five brothers and one sister. Bernard's parents were exceptional models of virtue. It is said that his mother exerted a virtuous influence upon Bernard only second to what St. Monica had done for St. Augustine. Her death in 1107 so affected Bernard that he claimed that it was when his "long path to complete conversion" began. He turned away from his literary education toward a life of denial and solitude. He joined the Cistercians at age 22. Bernard was so passionate about his faith that he convinced his brothers, his uncle, and many of his friends to join him at the abbey. Bernard first entered the abbey at Citeaux, but only three years later was sent with 12 other monks to establish another monastery in the Diocese of Champagne. The monastery came to be known as Clairvaux (Valley of Light). He led the other monks there as the abbot for the rest of his life. Bernard's physical ailments during this time may account for consistent partiality for physical rigors. He was plagued most of his life by impaired health (anemia, migraines, gastritis, hypertension, an atrophied sense of taste). However, as Bernard's health worsened, his spirituality deepened. He also learned how to combine the contemplative life with important missionary work. Bernard was known for his strict observance of silence and contemplation; but these practices did not impede him from living a very intense apostolic life. Bernard taught the faith with humility. He was known for his focus on the truth that God, who is love, created mankind out of love and that man's salvation consists of adhering firmly to Divine love, revealed through the crucified and risen Christ. Saint Bernard is also well-known for his Marian devotion, especially in using and promoting the "Memorare" prayer. Pope Pius VIII labeled Bernard as the "Honey-Sweet Doctor" for his eloquence in sharing the faith. Bernard continued to write and give sermons and he traveled throughout Europe defending the Christian faith. As the confidant of five popes and a major figure in church councils, Bernard considered it his role to assist in healing church wounds inflicted by the antipopes and to oppose rationalistic influences of the time. His greatest literary work is titled "Sermons on the Canticle of Canticles." In it, St. Bernard wrote: "The Father is never fully known if He is not loved perfectly." And, "Whence arises the love of God? From God. And what is the measure of this love? To love without measure." St. Bernard was declared a doctor of the church in 1830, thanks to his many writings and sermons which greatly influenced Europe in the 12th century and his efforts which helped to avoid a schism in the Church in 1130. Bernard was extolled in 1953 as doctor mellifluus in an encyclical of Pope Pius XII; he was canonized in the year 1174. Saint Bernard is the patron of beekeepers; candlemakers; wax refiners; Gibraltar; Queens College, and Cambridge.

"What we love we shall grow to resemble." – St. Bernard of Clairvaux

Ideas for celebrating this feast at home:

- In honor of this saint born near Dijon, France, make a dinner using Dijon mustard! Ideas: creamy Dijon chicken and rosemary Dijon roasted veggies. Don't forget to serve honey and bread with dinner, to honor this "honey-sweet" doctor of the Church. A glass of champagne enjoyed at dinner would be fun nod to the monastery Bernard established at the Diocese of Champagne.
- Because St. Bernard is the patron of candlemakers, learn how to make homemade candles on his feast. Candles 101 is a good place to start.
- Learn more about the Cistercian Order founded by St. Bernard.
- Available online, read: Preaching Conversion Through The Beatitudes: Bernard Of Clairvaux's Ad Clericos De Conversione and Pope Pius XII On St. Bernard Of Clairvaux.
- Memorize the Memorare prayer.
- Though of a rich and noble family St. Bernard continually asked the question: "For what purpose are you on earth?" Spend time today in front of the Blessed Sacrament and ask yourself this question.
